I found this new free rat somewhere in web, I'm not going to give the link here as I'm not responsible on any cause to your PC, I'm not sharing or vouching this software but I can see it's great it has free and pro version which only cost $5. It was coded by Indonesian guy. Sadly he isn't on HF. Maybe this will be the best rat soon or in the future?

What do you guys think?

Pretty sure this is placed (wrongly) in the lounge, or it was, if they finally got around to deleting it.
