Scammed $120 by Regular Show

So he offered to sell me a umg account (<http://umggaming.com/Muslxm>) for $120. The pictures below will show our skype chat of it:

<http://prnt.sc/cpwgf4>
<http://prnt.sc/cpwgns>
<http://prnt.sc/cpwgy5>
<http://prnt.sc/cpwi9d>

We then agreed to use Little Bean as a middle man. Proof we agreed on this:

<http://prnt.sc/cpwrpc>

So we talked and stuff, and here is proof I sent the payment to him:

This is the info that Little Bean sent me when middle manning & proof its his skype:

<http://prnt.sc/cpwn88>

<http://prnt.sc/cpwn4y>

<http://prnt.sc/cpwq19>

So everything has been good for a week. Suddenly, the email password changed and my recovery email was removed:

<http://prnt.sc/cpwonh>

<http://prntscr.com/cpx6fl>

I didn't how he did until I tried recovering the email and it had a phone number on it that it could send a text to. I swear on everything there was NO number there... and Little Bean said it was all clear. I do not know how this is possible. I had ALSO bought a different UMG account for $40 from him but I sold it to my friend Martino. He secured EVERYTHING. He has his own phone number and everything but it still got pulled back. Crazy ass shit idk how he did this. I sold the umg for $30 to Martino so I have to pay him back shortly. I basically got scammed $160 lol. Anyways, so I provided proof the email is taken but for some reason he never took back the UMG account. So just today, he pulled it back. But not only that, he must have contacted UMG themselves saying it was HACKED because when I go to <http://umggaming.com> , it says this: <http://prnt.sc/cpwoxb>

User 3221 IS the umg account that Regular Show sold me. I can't provide proof of this because I am banned and it was taken back.

I must have not looked hard enough at all the stuff that was removed such as the phone number. Definitely not false and you are the weirdo that needs to scam.

"Must have not looked hard enough at all the stuff"

1. I removed all recovery details
2. LittleBean aswell double checked to remove all recovery details.

Your basically telling me you "forgot" to remove a recovery detail when you put your own on the email? Lmao when you sign into a email, the first thing you see is what recovery details are on the account you moron liar.

Lmao nice lie dude. Stop with these false accusation please. And you probably fucked Martino over too. Get a life man.

I didn't "Forget". I guess I just didn't check enough to make sure everything is secure. I honestly don't know how you pulled this back. You also did it to Martino's as well and he even put his own phone number. And give me proof to where Little Bean said he double checked he removed all the recovery details?

Lmao. Your telling me that you didn't check? Your telling me that you had your eyes closed as you were putting your own recovery email? Dude just stop this right now, your embarrassing yourself. When you go to put a recovery detail on an account; it states/tells you what recovery details are already on the account....

If you did not check enough which is clearly your mistake, it's your fault. Also, you might wanna post some proof that the seller recovered the acc, otherwise its just unproved accusations. You don't have much for a scam report.

It is probably possible to contact support for any service and say your account was hacked. They will see activity from new IP (buyer) and believe it. All he has to know is some stuff like account history, when was the account made etc. and support team would recover the account for him.

Just saying it's possible, I don't want to choose any side here..

I didn't even know I got it banned. Which is what is funny about this whole situation. You took it back and got me banned on a whole different umg for "hacking a umg and stealing their money" so I contacted umg about it and explained the situation WITH proof and they ended up unbanning me and I guess banned yours instead. Karma ?

Also... I've done deals over $300... seems wierd I would scam for lower. Oh well.
