Thread: [CS:GO \[DDoS Griefer\] -> + Human Shield Hacker + 7d Ban \(READ\)](#)

RonzaX - October 5, 2016, 9:13 am

So, this morning I went on my laptop and played CS:GO I saved a comp game for our team added them as friend (2 of them)

So we go into another comp game & they're 2 people who are friends who keep calling us fags & stuff mostly the toxic common stuff blah blah blah, some time passes he made a bet with me who would top frag since I've been top fragging for the last 4 games I made a bet with my knife after that he added me as friend msged me and said Do you want to mess with the other guy(he didnt say that he said his friends name which I do not remember) After that he calls me I answer then he hangs up at the second. At that moment I knew I fucked up. I say you wireshark'd me? He replied saying my ip address, then he said "Yeah, we also have a subscription". I was like in my head, these guys realize ddosing is like 2014-2015. So I say, so "you guys have stressers? Nice, try and hit me offline.?" Then they both hit me, I could tell they hit me due to the fact my ping went from 17 to 55 & everyone voice sounded like a robot. But my game didn't lag I was still ranking up kills ^_^ so I typed in chat, looks like it's not working to well? So, I go offline for 4 rounds (keep in mind they lost all those rounds with out me) I login to my Router CP -> Firewall. And you guys can guess what I do next.

I was also laughing at the fact I had more kills then everyone still. After that they realized ddosing me & my friends didn't work out so well as they planned. So, after they get my friend 7d banned. Right when they're shooting he walks right in front of him which lead him to get banned next was me. So, I sorta used him as a human shield ^_^ we went to long doors and he tried walking in front of my gun which didn't work out so good again... Everyone came out of long doors lined up and I killed all of them with a headshot, they all lined up for me to kill them.

So, after I die after my teammate dies at cat then kills me I respawn as a bot with a mag7 in ct spawn come and kill my teammate since it says if I kill 2 more of my teammates I'll be banned. So, I wanted to kill him one more time.

I spawn as the bot again rounds almost over I shoot him then get banned for 7d which was stupid it said 2 more teammates then my friend. We all got banned for 7days due to the griefer

Give me thoughts ^_^
