Thread: Who else browses HF on the toilet?

Doctor Fate - October 6, 2016, 11:18 am

HF is definitely my go to thing to do when I'm on the toilet. Who's with me?

Yin Yang - October 6, 2016, 11:22 am

I'm guilty of being on HF while pooing as well. Just imagine your life and what it was like prior to being able to be on your cellphone while taking a dump- dark times I tell ya.

I don't understand how people can sit on the toilet for so long... do you just take that long to poop or just sit there after you're done?

I don't think my poops take longer than a minute.

I don't remember the last time I took a shit without checking HF. Hell I even use one hand while pissing to "View New Posts".

FROst - October 6, 2016, 9:04 pm

I'm always checking HF out when I'm going its honestly a usual thing I do.

Shadow Reign - October 6, 2016, 9:12 pm

I remember those dark times. Many many moons ago. We didn't have these mystical hand held devices to distract us while we took shits. It was horrible. You were forced to grab the nearest shampoo bottle or soap package in a desperate attempt to read the ingredients and labeling for the hundredth time. If you were one of the lucky few, you'd remember to bring an old National Geographic or Sports Illustrated in with you.

NoObInT387 - October 6, 2016, 9:24 pm

I've honestly never checked out HF while on the shitter but will def consider doing so in the future. I may be looking into HF on my mobile too ya never know haha.
