Price has gone up to $10.
Due to high demand.
More people having this bot, the more difficult it will be to compete.
So the price has been raised a tad bit.

Is this a js userscript?
Just looking at the requirements it seems like it is, but not sure...

OddestFuture - October 8, 2016, 6:30 am

You sure make this have a limited amount of copies so it isnt terrible and make the last few copies more expensive. Better to have less people and for sure product than more people and less chance.

With items like the Gucci tee that was limited to one tee per style you'd be risking getting your orders cancelled.

Pretty sure Supreme cancels orders going to the same address.
And you can only get 1 item type of the same order.

You are more than welcome to use this bot mutiply, if you have 2 different cards and another address.

I'm assuming that you would get the link or you are going to have to be fast to get the item page loaded and let the bot do the rest. It does not support keyword, would be a great update for the bot though!

The items for this drop are more personal items.

Not sure if it's going to do well reselling.

Not too mention that the retail on items are going to be very expensive because the collaboration brand is high end fashion and some of their coats go for $1000+

I'm pretty sure the scarf might be a good piece.

But, I'd suggest not grabbing anything from this collaboration and just get the general release items dropping with it.

The bot is designed.

So it fills out all your credentials and automatically processes your order.

In that video he was doing it manually without the checkout option because he was being safe.

There is an option that checks the terms box and processes the order in less than 3 seconds.

Google chrome can't do that.

so supreme is pretty exclusive. u can buy clothes for retail on the website before they sell out if you're lucky because they sell out pretty quickly. what people do is buy the clothes for retail then flip it for a pretty big profit if you manage to get lucky on a hyped item.

Easy purchase just flipped this for $300.

On the CDG Collab, not to mention I also purchased the Northface collab with this.

Note: Will be updating bot frequently, due to Supreme changing their coding frequently.

Redwall - August 23, 2017, 9:07 pm

I've received multiple messages/questions regarding my supreme program.

The Supreme webstore has been closed for a few months now in order to get their fall/winter season prepared.

Throughout this time, Supreme could have change their coding and their isn't any way to check until the webstore is actually open and this wouldn't be the first time they change the checkout coding.

With this being said, if you have purchased this bot recently, you are taking a risk in not being able to successfully checkout in this first drop tomorrow.

So, I would suggest going manual until changes are made by the second drop.

Any questions message me.

Good luck to everyone tomorrow, and feel free to share what you copped in this thread.

such as in CSV format:

since if i would make a bot order it for me my card would most likly get blocked by the creditcard company.

i would have to use provider for VCC, this allow me to use multiple VCC's without worrying.

going to buy now, lets see. will update :)

GunBenefits - May 23, 2019, 8:36 am

Update. Cooked Supreme shoulder bag green.

Some things to note though.

- Credit card didnt enter (I had my autofill on for google chrome so that saved me)
- You have to re-check agree to terms
- Auto pay doesnt work (I'd rather not use it) value: 7/10, could be a 9 with some fixes.

price: 9/10, if youre starting out. this is good for its price.

so 4 years later you still haven't bothered to add EU/UK support? nice.

You could have quadrupled your sales but i guess this is why not all of us become rich/successful, some just have to slack.

mmmces - December 15, 2019, 2:15 am
