Thread: Hurricane Matthew | Should I go away right now? \(I think I need rescue\)

Puffer Fish - October 7, 2016, 12:39 am

Flood is raising up on our first floor, Strong winds, no power, etc. I think I need rescue right now. I'm using LTE data pack. Can someone call rescue Lawl .? ?

edit: oh fucking rip Jesus , our roof just flew off its ceiling .

BR?ND?N - October 7, 2016, 12:41 am

No power. Is on HF. Explain this to me. If you're on mobile, call someone. Your data pack don't fucking matter in emergency.

And this is why you should have evacuated yesterday like everyone else did

Stashy - October 7, 2016, 12:47 am take video and screenshots if you aren't lying TrapResonanz - October 7, 2016, 12:47 am bullshit thread the storm isnt flooding anywhere right now

Redwall - October 7, 2016, 12:51 am

Doubt there's a a storm surge around you.

Horizon - October 7, 2016, 12:59 am

If serious, this is why you should have taken advice and evacuated already man.

because it is staged the government needed an excuse to evacuate an entire state because a failed experiment escaped testing chambers and started going on a rampage. not many people know but the government is trying to get as many people out of the state as they can so that they can quarantine the zone off and kill the experiment and any witnesses after the fake hurricane blows over and things seemingly go back to normal, there will be a certain amount of reported deaths. said deaths will either be as a result of the experiment's killings or government execution of witnesses. the bodies will be manipulated to appear waterlogged and ruined from the storm and hurricane spread awareness
