<https://steamdb.info/calculator/76561197960395515/?cc=us>

Steam ID with 5 digits
108 Games, only paid.. no free games.
Steam level 10
13 Year badge
CS:GO included yes + 5 year badge.. unranked.

account coming with original e-mail address.. also the username is e-mail address.

I am asking for 60$ BTC

I am accepting escrow, middleman etc.. buyer paying for them..

Anyone?

Doubt anyone's willing to put their own money down for a middleman to deal with a person with 1 rep. If anything, you should be paying since you're selling. On the other hand there are a lot of reputation free middlemen out there

Hi! OP I have some things to share with you:

Selling Low Digit Steams:

Low Digit Steams are nice to have and people do want them but here are some things you should know about them: They are highly prone to being community banned or put in an deleted state

Linking them directly is usually a horrible idea

To elaborate on why it's a bad idea to link them directly:

Valve does not like people exchanging them at all and employees such as BurtonJ spend alot of their time investigating low ids. Linking these ids on marketplace sites allows them to be linked to breaking the SSA (Steam Subscriber Agreement) which is taken very seriously.

Here is how to list them safely so they can not be linked to SSA break: Censor the URL if show URL is enabled

Censor the name, profile image, and any other information that could directly id the account

Upload the censored images to a host like imgur and use image tags with spoilers.

If you would like to know more feel free to ask.

Also on another note the price needs adjustment, the accounts games are mostly cheap indie games on top of that your id is in the 6 range 5 digit.

I wouldn't ignore my recommendation tho OP, low digits have high ban risk!

He's not the original owner of numnutz517, there isn't a way he could have the hl1 key, he might have the keys he used but if Burton reks it support would ask for hl1 key, deleting it via help.steampowered.com and replacing it does not work..

You don't have any rights to talk in my thread. i am the seller they asking me. what you mean with low digits high ban? you don't know anything about steam. i already had 3 digits starting with 7. used it for 4 years then sold it. i already have all keys purchased for 107 games without 8 games cs 16 hl etc because they was free. of course i am not the first owner of this account.

Account is still for sale.

Just because you had one 3 digit doesn't mean you know how low digits work bud, I have every right to post in threads, you are taking constructive help as an attack.
