Quote:The story takes place in a world where people continue their war against the "unknown"—the enemy of humanity. Children who have been evacuated to a cold sleep facility during the invasion by the "unknown" several decades ago wake up from their slumber and learn that their bodies developed some supernatural forces. In order to protect the country from the "unknown" emerging from the Tokyo bay gate, the boys and girls wage battles in the defense the cities of Tokyo, Kanagawa, and Chiba.

Best thing about this Anime: Canaria's song.

"This video contains content from Marevelousaqlmusic. It is not available in your country." :(RIP, had to find another vid to watch it on YT.

I may or may not watch this, but based on the reviews the anime is average at best. How is the animation though? I read mixed reviews about it.

Not the best art style there is, and at some point you can see that they messed up the animation a bit. What made me watch the Anime was mainly the plot, and there was a good story. Honestly, I would expect it to be ranked in the 800th on MAL (popularity wise), though it's true that it's quite average. Opening and Canaria's song are probably the best thing in the show, along with the plot/story.

So on a scale of 0 to 10, how much would you recommend watching this??

Hum... I would say 6. The thing is that I watch a lot of Anime like these in-between good ones (when I want to take it easy, relax and/or want to fill a lack of X like action, romance, etc.) hence why I often end up watching things like that.

If I had one word to describe this anime: weak

MC was too cringe and unoriginal. Story was okay? I liked the other characters though, kept it funny/interesting.

The brother/sister relationship was nice, though I wish it would have been pushed a little bit farther. Oh well.
