Thread: Hacked! getting free food delivered over and over

POSTMATES - October 8, 2016, 12:20 pm

? Postmates has free stuff all the time like a good burger from Chilis or some ice cream on a hot day shoot they even have a free 6 pack a beer every now and then! the only catch is you pay for delivery! which is usually around 10.00 and below.. when you create a new account and use Promo Code 4UB216 you will get $10 credit every time you use this code.

Thanks for Reading

?Download Postmates and enter Promo Code 4UB216?

its easy you just create an account and when postmates offers free food you just pay for delivery. With promo code 4ub216 that waves delivery equaling 100% free transaction. i get stuff delivered all the time to my office coffee , lunch, sweets seriously this works %

You're either paid to advertise this shit, or you're one of those people that never shuts up and advertises something (most likely shitty), shoving it in people's faces all the time.

so what if i got paid? what would that matter and many people are always online you just see the same post cause you have no where else to go .. if you new anything about advertising you know you have to put your self out there and share as much as you can so dont be an asshole all im trying to do is tell people about a promotion that actually works! its not my fault for posting somewhere im allowed to post. dont be a hater be a lover!
