Thread: Scammed \$250 Bitcoins by Black Shadow uid=63387

Royal ! - October 9, 2016, 8:43 am

Profile link of scammer-: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=63387>

Thread in question-: He junked the thread but with the help of a "Cache viewer" tool, I was able to get at-least a snippet of his thread.

Thread link-: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5423018>

Proof-: Spoiler (Click to View)

So, I am going to keep this short and simple. He was selling a so called money making method. At first, he kept the price at $1000. Then he lowered it to $500 and rest after the buyer has earned some money. I offered him a deal of paying $150 first and rest once I earned some.

All in all, we finally agreed upon $250 up-front payment to him. I made the payment and he then sent me the so called "Method" along with his Skype ID.

Some payment proofs-:

A-: Spoiler (Click to View)

B-: Spoiler (Click to View)

Then he sent me the so called method by HF PM and password over skype-:

Proofs-:

A-: Spoiler (Click to View)

B-: Spoiler (Click to View)

About the method-:

The method he is selling involves Extreme amount of fraud, literally SCAMMING people, and is not even allowed to be sold here on HF.

Here is a VERY TINY snippet from the so called "method"-:

Spoiler (Click to View)

This same method was sold by a HF member(who got his account closed) way back in 2013. I am still trying to find the hf profile link of that member but its hard since its quite much time passed now.

And this method is available literally all over the internet since quite much time, for free.

I don't think I am allowed to tell fully what really the method is about But I can give a hint that it involves "Stealth and Ebay and some other real *****".

Hope you got the idea what's its all about.

Furthermore, this method does not even work 95% of the time(People are not stupid you know?).

And he is selling it for $1k.

Anyways, when I asked him for the refund. He told me this-:

Spoiler (Click to View)

And now look at his skype title message-:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Further proof of his so called "Methods" being Public-:

Well hopefully this gets resolved. BS is the highest repped member here.

THE RULER - October 9, 2016, 8:47 am

Dude, I literally called him out on the BS for days on that thread.

The first copy he sold for $130, claiming that it was sold for $1k the entire time to try & boost the prices for any future sales.

hopefully he comes to his senses and refunds you..

(Oct 9, 2016 08:47 AM)vurezo Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) He's had that Skype message for quite a while, even before I bought the method myself (for $130, and later paid him in full and convinced him to raise his prices back up again). I don't know what method he gave you, but the method he gave me certainly has a lot better success rate than 5%, it might be a public method, I don't know, have yet to see any public method which matches the method I got at least. Also, the method I were given doesn't involve scamming people or leaving with people's money.

I am more then sure he did not have that skype title message until the point he denied me the refund and also junked his thread. And if he was that much of a "legitimate" guy then he should not have junked his thread and when I asked him for refund he should not have made that lame excuse which he made to me. He simply could have denied me the refund if his so called method was so "Rock solid".

Why are you backing him up seriously?.

Craze Products - October 9, 2016, 8:57 am

Wow this isn't a surprise. Was kind of obvious he was desperate for money when he couldn't afford to pay back the currency exchange he did a few days ago.

Goodluck getting you're money back OP

Check his reputation. Here is more proof about this so called "method" he tried to sell again, lol.

Am I the only one who is amazed that you actually purchased a method from Black Shadow?

He's selling a method that is highly banned on HF and should be dealt with.

I already did post enough proof for HF members in order to make them understand what this so called "Method" is all about. I am not going to break HF rules by posting the entire method over here as it contains extreme fraud.

If your method is so Rock Solid and not Public, why you didn't deny me the refund straight up?.

You said you will refund me once you earn some more money by selling more copies. How pathetic is that?. You literally accepted that you are selling a bullshit method and you will pay me back once you scam more members with your bullshit method.

Limited Edition - October 9, 2016, 9:43 am

It's sad to see an addiction get so strong a user has to resort to scamming.

NaDe - October 9, 2016, 9:46 am

So you want him to post your "Flawless" method to prove it is in fact public?

In turn, no one will ever purchase the method from you because it will definitely be public then.

So you will be unable to make sales and continue to profit from it, all because you don't want to refund him?

Sounds legit.

Public or not the user should receive a refund for buying a method that is against the rules and shouldn't have been sold in the first place.

Stoke - October 9, 2016, 9:52 am

Black Shadow is truly a mystery. I don't think I'll ever understand him.

Good luck solving this.

White Hat - October 9, 2016, 10:09 am

$1,000 for bs black hat method, only on hf. Give me a $1,000 and ill show you you what true black hat fraud like youll never see before is.

On that note, op i am sorry you got scammed. Maybe the post i refrained from making because i thought wasnt worth may or may not have changed your mind. But dont ever buy any blackhat method here. Its impossible not to fall under the category of hf disalllowed activity.

There are two buyers when they buy an ebook like this. 1) they report it as disallowed no matter the method, even if its one best bh methods. 2) they love it and they dont report it at all.

Truth is both those statements intermingle but the other truth is the first type really reports it because the method sucks, the 2nd doesnt because he loves it and got what he paid for.

Look at that vurezo guy. Im sure he loves whatever method he got. Im more than positive anything that will supposedly make you $10k a week or w/e is disallowed. Why? Because omni has done an amazing job a fucking squeezing out 95% of any resources/ideas/talks that links to fraud.

Now if you're talking about some bs small scam where eh you take 6 to 8 hours to make $150 to $300 by buying things and then not quite exactly se'ing but i wont mention how you get money back, then that is something where new little black hat idea can be discovered.

In fraud you speaj realistically. So when you have a method, if you say wow now if i push this x100 ill make $30,000 month! Bruh thats the way someone with greed, high ambitions but no experience thinks. Which is why they take advantage and make ebooks no matter what that mentions ridiculous ROI. Doesnt even have to be bh look at our ebooks here.

Money like that takes resources, secured method youd dicovered, and another or more individuals. I was going to offer a 4 to 6 weeks mentorship service in bh stuff for half this price. Its an extensive but not rocket science training. But i dont want to break the rules. I could lie and mention only blackhat but ik people, they need to be slightly informed. I dont want to disrespect omni, like this fuy did.. i may not donate, i may not try to suck up to him, nor make money of his site, but i know hes seen me around for a while (oh his rep while ago proves it) and i wouldnt disrespect him.

I dont really know what else to say man but atleast your not down $1,000. I know alot about fraud, by me mentioning that i am nkt incriminating my self but instead mentioning that ive educated my self. Ive test different fraud systems for months and got chance to play with the, understand them, and at the end avoid being flagged by them. Whether it be financial or third party for webpages. It takes alot of educations, dedication, and will power to succeed in that field.

The big guys that make it can tell you that its like literslly putting your self through school, its stressful, and you only lesrn 60% which get you on par to what you need and how it works in general, the rest 40% is learning everyday new thigs that come out, security, updates, websites, methods, patches, etc.. you leave for a month, and the field changes.

I think this is the levels ive observed about people in the field.

1 a) ehh se'ing shouldnt really even be considered haha

1 b) carding, now theres expert carding which can blow most levels away but were going in order in which people go through.

2) payment processors, they learn a bit of opsec, learn from bad carding, didnt spend to much time tryn perfect their carding but managed to fet a $150 gift card after spending $75. So they take cards to payprocess.

(Note its why most these carded gift card sellers are noobs, no one in right mind kills card or acct for 60 to 75% of amount in gc.. its bs hassle.)

3) bank level - on this level is when few things can happen. The novice will realize no matter what he will need something or have to do something to have to succeed better and has to do with bank. Whether calling back bank, or getting bank acct, or he discovered new method but it uses bank accts and he needs one too. No matter whst big money tskes this.

4) the info is key level - in this level the person realized that the money they want comes froma person, that this person has info thst might be neded the intermediate novice now is expanding his horizon and his field of thought is growing. He realizes he needs as muh info possible to become his victim no matter what it is he does, he needs to know the victim like palm of his hand.

5) the plateau - in this level the person may have so many ideas to try so many paths to try to succeed in while trying to measure his time spent, his risk, snd resources. Its a small standstill as he struggles to get organized or into one place. The need to collaborate with multiple people is an urge to get advice or evem use people. At this point the individual is aware of carding, payment procc, shop creation, bit of opsec, bank accts, loans, checkd,

6) finally the realidt stage.. in this stage the individual has gain enough insight, enough wisdom to see the truth. He may decide to leave and say eh its too muvh. Or he may stay. If he stays he has gained something that only st this stage is earned. He has no more need for instant gratification, he has patience, he is realistic about earnings, he has clarity and cares about improving and is not scared to try any method, but knows now that he can only do so one at a time no matter the length. Now hes interested in expanding and researching, even if its carding, he gets tht the longer a plsn or method is, the bigger profits.

That is the 60% level mark, the 40% is unknown because you'd lost the fear of the unknown. (Will I make money, omg when will I understand, omg I should give up idk if I got what it takes, omg this takes too long, which method should I do?? That is the fear)

Hopefully without going in depth to avoid disallowed bh topics you understand. I hope you decide now whether you would pursue this field to make up for what you've lost, or you take this loss and move on. I thought I'd give a bit of knowledge and advice to make you feel better, may not be much but yea. Tbh a method like that isn't worth even $100. Something worth $500 $1,000 even mentioning it here will be like what...

Plus less than 90% of people who have a method that would be worth 1k, wouldn't cuz it means they make more money off it hahahaha..

Roger Waters - October 9, 2016, 11:45 am

Once again Blackshadow is scamming.

He's poor as fuck, tries to convince people otherwise, then preys on unsuspecting users.

He has a gambling addiction and is mentally incompetent to leave his house, which is why as a 50 year old dude, he spends his entire days on HF.

I'm sorry this happened to you OP, everyone needs to be aware that Blackshadow is a scammer. Unfortunately he makes too many giveaways and sob stories in the lounge, and is constantly gaining pity rep to cover up his negatives.

SUI-3183372 - October 9, 2016, 1:14 pm

I've done what I can to help people from falling for his bullshit, unfortunately it will be covered up with "road to 6k rep!" bullshit from lounge whores who don't even know how dangerous this fool can be to unsuspecting users.

Another problem with this is, even if you prove to him this method is public, and I'm sure it is, he's going to claim it's his original work.

He took the public method and re-wrote it in his own words. He'll claim bullshit about your proof being "similar" but not the same, as he made his method up all on his own (his mum would be so proud! (if she didn't already kill herself for having to put up with him)). It doesn't matter that he based it off of a public method, in his mind since he re-wrote it in his own words, it's original and not public, so it's not the same. Unfortunately OP, you won't be seeing your money returned.

The thing is OP came back to me 1 hour after I sent it to him then comes out with that...that he wants a refund because he knows this method.

By that time I had already sent the BTC off to other partys. so now I have nothing to give him back.

Some say why not use the method to get the cash or if the method is so good why have you not got the cash?

The answer is I have only ever done it once and earned a nice $800 but thats well spent now.

Really anybody could say this to any member, but I tell you now this is my own method I devised myself I have never seen it before.

Also the other 2 sales went fine they were made up with the method.

I have decided to resolve this as I do not need a deal dispute on my profile so I will pay back OP when I have it he hasnt lost it.

Some say why not use the method to get the cash or if the method is so good why have you not got the cash?

The answer is I have only ever done it once and earned a nice $800 but thats well spent now.

Really anybody could say this to any member, but I tell you now this is my own method I devised myself I have never seen it before.

Also the other 2 sales went fine they were made up with the method.

I have decided to resolve this as I do not need a deal dispute on my profile so I will pay back OP when I have it he hasnt lost it.

I have owed other members money for like weeks but I always pay back in the end,

There isn't much sense in trying to reason with someone who's blatantly ignored reason for 5+ years on this forum. It's almost monthly that he makes a completely idiotic thread, some people flame him and call him retarded, some people try to actually take the time to reason with him, but in the end he still thinks he knows better than EVERYONE else.

He claims to live off of some sort of inheritance one week, then the next week he'll make a sob story about how his gambling addiction has almost broken his family, only after losing a couple thousand of dollars. That inheritance sure did dry up quick? It's hard to sort through all his lies, but I assume he just acts as a stay at home mom for his kid while his wife actually provides (if they actually do exist and aren't another lie). Blackshadow used his reputation to sell this scamming method on HF. He thinks his reputation can bypass the rules, so whenever people posted on his sales thread mentioning the word fraud he would junk it.

I mean Staff can see junked threads right? Then they will see 5+ sales threads selling the same method which were posted within weeks apart.

Yeah I'm not sure if vurezo was an accessory to this, if Black Shadow bribed him, if he was trolling, or if vurezo is Black Shadow.

Why have you been trying to sell the same scamming/fraud method for the last few months despite knowing this method is NOT allowed to be sold here on HF?

Why don't you have the funds to pay OP back when you are selling a method which apparently makes 10k per week? I mean, $250 is measly compared to the earnings of your so called method.

It talks about selling fake items to multiple people, how to reduce hold times on PP funds, how to fake tracking info, and how to SE the victims into waiting until it's too late. I hate that he's getting away with this.

His neg rep on me says "I don't like your attitude". That must be the attitude that you pay people what you fucking owe them before you go spending it on shit. What an old, worthless, cunt. It wouldn't even be pathetic if he was 16. If he was 16 I'd see it as an adolescent whose brain wasn't fully developed and was therefore making bad choices. As a 50 year old it's just fucked.

Varane - November 14, 2016, 6:27 pm

Black Shadow is an old man with a gambling addiction that needs help. I suggest staying away from him.

As a matter of fact, I'm a 16 year old who you could describe as fairly bad at self-control. I've lost a fair bit to bustabit, but hey, I'm not addicted where that's all I wanna do all day.

He opened up his exchange thread for a second just now so someone could post on it, as soon as I got the link to this thread to post there, it was closed. Disgusting he is still exchanging but letting this dispute go unresolved.

He's selling a method that is highly banned on HF and should be dealt with.

Just read the dispute, this looks like a legit report. Sorry to hear you got scammed by Black Shadow.

You should have checked his UID and you would have known he can't be trusted. Sucks that you had to learn the hard way.

Janni - January 29, 2017, 12:15 am

Seems like he didn't resolve this yet, he thinks avoiding questions and making his own thread about the situation does anything for him.

Just because he has issues doesn't mean that he can go around scamming members by misleading them and taking their money, he should seek help for his issues and stop harming other members.

And its never going to be. But of course, staff don't give a flying fuck about how many members he's scammed, or how bad of a reputation he has, they ride him until he's fuckin raw. He'll most likely never get banned. BUT OH WAIT, WE HAVE TO BAN SOMEONE WHO SCAMMED FOR 20 DOLLARS! BLACKSHADOW JUST SCAMMED 600? NAH WE'LL LEAVE HIM. Thats the exact fucking mentality and it always will be. Its bullshit and still no one can do anything about it.
