Thread: H3God Mysterious EXTREME MONEY MAKING Threads

Millimeter Peter - October 10, 2016, 7:43 am

Hey hackforums. I've been wondering why H3God has over fifteen "extreme money making methods earn $5000 a month" and sells them for about $75? I mean why doesn't he put them to work and earn over 5k a month? I've been wondering...

The sales of that 'method' are probably the method earning him 5k :)))

Ebooks are fucking cancerous.

Roger Waters - October 10, 2016, 9:28 am

He makes 5000$ selling all of them...

Also you should know that all ebooks advertising how much money you make is just there to make you do an impulse buy. Ebooks are bullshit.

It's also been shown certain users have 5-10 others sell the exact same product just worded differently and the same users buy 1 from each person - the money all ends up in the creators pocket and the users selling it can't refund anyone because they aren't receiving the funds.

Marketplace is a sham and there are 0 products actually decent in there.
