Your account is only 9 days old. What makes you think people will trust you?

Anyway, good luck.

What. The. Fuck. Did. I. Just. Fucking. Read?

Kursed - October 12, 2016, 12:56 pm

Best of luck with this,

I would build some rep before you open a MM service as user stated above, your account is only 9 days old.

RainGaming - October 12, 2016, 12:56 pm

Nine days old doesn't really mean anything. In the end we are all here for the same reason, I'm here to better the community.

I totally understand where you are coming from. But I'm still going to offer my service because I know how shitty it feels having to wait for a message to know if you were scammed or not.

What if the middleman pulls a scam??

Vitani - October 12, 2016, 1:05 pm

It's nice to see that you are trying to make this community a safer place, though as other users already said, not many people will trust you with their money.

Build up some rep, let your account age for a bit, maybe get UB3R and then start this.

And I get where you are coming from but that doesn't mean you need to use my service if you have a problem with me.

(Oct 12, 2016 01:09 PM)Soulmat? Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) That was just an example, I'm mostly talking about middlemen like Axis or Minimalist which are extremely trusted on here. When I do a deal I usually don't go first unless they have GAs/MDs or a bunch of exchange reps.

And I understand like I said, maybe I'll be as trusted as them in the future only time will tell.

You might want to acquire more reputation/vouches before opening such services.

I'd still like to put my services out there to build it more quickly.

It's really impossible to show I mean business currently we will have to wait until I get more rep.

Geass - October 13, 2016, 4:51 am

OP trying to help with any way he can, but to say the truth i don't think anyone will use you as MM since you new but the thought alone is that matters :)

Danny Khalifa - October 13, 2016, 4:53 am

I don't think there will be people using you as a middleman if not for 2-3$ transactions.

Since you have joined this month, and have small reputation.

But good luck with your service lol
