Thread: [Scammed 127,70\$ By Stephanie046 \[USERID : 2987553\]](#)

Skype Conversation Screen :

He contacted me to exchange his 128$ PP for my BTC. He went first so I send the BTC to his BTC address [\[PROOF\]](#) after 24 Hours I get an email from PP telling the payment was chargedback for unauthorized payment.

<https://i.imgur.com/PVidNiw.png>

The day after he contact me on Skype telling me he send an email to PP the same morning , and another email in the afternoon. I call PP telling what happened and they told me he NEVER send an email or call them (because funds will be release immediately after the call) , so he's lying from yesterday.

The only proof he send me of the email he send is this :

<https://i.imgur.com/0yEdfAm.jpg>

So he replayed to an automatic email in DUTCH in ENGLISH ?

Yeah really believable.

I pretend to have a full BTC refund and IF the payment will be released I'll refund it without any problem.

UPDATE :

THANKS FOR NOT REPLAYING TO MY PMs / SKYPE MESSAGES / DEAL DISPUTES :)

UPDATE 2:

I just called PP again they told me the owner of the account chargeback all the payment for unauthorized.

So the solution are :

- 1) He call PP and he chargebacked all the payment.
- 2) He used a stole CC.
- 3) He used a stolen PayPal Account.

Zexi - October 13, 2016, 12:20 pm

I exchanged a good amount of paypal to skrill with OP. It sucks to see this many scammers on HF.

Sorry for your loss bruh.

pitmer - October 13, 2016, 12:22 pm

Report looks legit, hope you get that resolved soon :)

Riyu - October 13, 2016, 12:23 pm

Damn he asked me to exchange as well.

Danny Khalifa - October 13, 2016, 12:25 pm

Holy shit.

I've done plenty of deals with Stephanie and I never had any problems.

I hope he will solve this.

TheChi?f - October 13, 2016, 12:26 pm

If I get a BTC refund I'll be happy to close the Deal Disputes without any problem.

Same here. Her and I exchanged and this same deal happened with us. She refunded my BTC within a few hours and all was good.

He told me he will refund me but for now I don't see my PP funds or my BTC refund (not even 50% or anything like that) , I'll happy to close the Deal Disputes after he refund my BTC. And from now on he's not replying to my PM or Skype messages.

Forc?d - October 13, 2016, 3:13 pm

Legit report, dealt with OP many many times before.

Hope this get's resolved.

PM me.

I'll do my BEST for you to get this PayPal money back.

Extra info:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5395791> < She already scammed for $60+ (I WARNED everybody for this, yet some people didn't wanted to listen to me.)

It's a SHE, a real she.
I had photos, information, contacts, etc from her.
I even met her family, lover, friends and more. So believe me, it's a scamming anorexia looking bitch who's as tall as a freaking midget and the face of a monkey.

@OP:
What she did (what I assume):
Using a PayPal from a friend (her lover, sister, mother).
She used [censored] to use a different IP and claimed her money back after.

PM me and I will do 100% my BEST for you to get this fixed. ?

@ALL:
I hope you KNOW believe me that I made this thread to warn you guys for Stephanie046! You told me that I was too "caring" for this Forum's safety and now it happened again!:

Thank you.
I just HATE it.

I warned OVER 50 people. Many members thanked me for warning them.
She's just manipulative and doesn't understand that "stephanielemmens@hotmail.com" (provided in original post) can be linked to her:

- real name
- address
- phone number
- family members name
- social media accounts

really really fast. Especially guys who got her information already cough cough.
I'm not going to leak anything here, because it isn't allowed.
I'm just asking / telling members that they can contact me in case they want to resolve things with Stephanie046.

Brahma™ - October 16, 2016, 7:19 am

I hope she is stopped before going on a rampage.

I know how she thinks.

She needed money for drugs (the SAME reason why she stole OVER 1000's of euros from people / family / online buyers).

She's scamming as much as she can until she's banned.

As soon as she's banned, she's going to ask her lover to sign up for her, so she can use that account to become "trusted" again.

DO NOT FALL FOR THIS.

I made a thread for every member that got scammed by her:

He tried to reach her / her sister / her mother & her lover (yes a girl.. yes she's lesbian) and they blocked him, PM him for proof / more information.

a guy Replied that I should stop "being ewhored".

DO RESEARCH & FIND OUT ITS A SCAMMING 19 YEAR OLD ANOREXIA DUTCH GIRL.

Doubt me? Good. Feel free to be scammed.

I am just trying to help you guys out and you accuse me of being "ewhored" by a girl I know in real life..?

Please PM me if you need info instead of flaming me for telling the truth

Not a he. (except that I know it, due to "hanging out" with this scammer for over a year.) look at OP. He posted "Stephanielemmens@hotmail.com".

Google "Stephanie Lemmens".

What do you find? A 19 year old girl with blond hair, looking anorexia who's scamming online for drugs money.

So believe it or not. She is and will always be scammer.

More info (3 guys being scammed by her):

I feel really sorry for you.

I warned plenty of members for her but I was the one called "crazy" for (quote...) "caring so much for a public forum".

I know that unauthorized payments are very hard to win, if you want you can PM me about this.
I got something for you which you might like ?
