Thread: Simple Halloween logo \(and a rat\)

Dostoevsky - October 14, 2016, 4:34 pm

Got bored as hell, made this:

EDIT: Added some autistic shit:

I had to like draw most of it (I basically drew over a pre-existing image for the pumpkin, manually drew the dripping, drew all shadows, used a brush for the tree, used a clipart for the witch).

Thoughts? Trying to sustain a Halloween erection atm.

EDIT: Drew a fucking rat for the memes too. Free hand.

Pretty neat. Some cracks in the letters would look cool don't you think? Keep it up.

Yeah, I could work on making the text more dynamic. I also wanted like spider webs stretching in between some of the letters. Thanks for the idea.

Yeah, I'll maybe look into that idea. Thanks.

TRAUMA - October 14, 2016, 4:47 pm

Did you make the hat and stuff OP?

Dostoevsky - October 14, 2016, 4:57 pm

(Oct 14, 2016 04:47 PM)CHAsE Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Did you make the hat and stuff OP?

Yes, I made the hat. I basically just used the pen tool to draw the main body of it and then freehanded the rest of it. Simple, really.

The pumpkin was a different story. I used a clipart and basically just drew over it.

Other things freehanded were the dripping parts of the text.

If you look closely, you'll notice how the outlines aren't like 100% smooth :)

kurdz - October 15, 2016, 4:46 am

Actually looks nice. Maybe the font should be a tiny bit more creepy/scary.

FroD0wnLow - October 15, 2016, 5:06 am

Not bad, love the witch in the moon XD. What somebody mentioned earlier with the cracks might be a good idea. keep at it :)

Prophett - October 15, 2016, 2:08 pm

Maybe add a blood splatter over the text? It's a good start but more can definitely be included!

Look's awesome, I'm shit at drawing and invested into a $600 drawing tablet, I'm a moron ? ? ?

I'm kinda bad at drawing too hence why I only paid like $80 for my graphics tablet. I went cheap simply due to doubts regarding my own ability and because I wanted to be able to pen school notes directly into my PC without scanning on fucking pages. I sometimes sit for hours on end just writing my own fancy calligraphy handwriting (sadly though, due to my main concern being equations, the tablet is cheap and doesn't support pressures so Photoshop and other tools rely on the speed of my line drawings to dictate how thick a line should be - annoying).

Also, thanks.

I personally like the second version of the halloween 'Hackforums' title.

I think I do too. I based the improvements off of suggestions in the replies here.

Cheers.

the overall looks nice but i reckon the tree/moon doesn't fit the whole cartoony vibe you've gone for.
