Previous thread : <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5431955>

Had to update the routine.

New price :

35% BTC of credit value

I.E

100$ credit for 35$ BTC

1000$ credit for 350$ BTC

You can provide me with your referral code and i'll add the credits directly to your account. Still easy peasy.

edit: lowered price.

Prødigy - October 14, 2016, 5:21 pm

Pm'd you hope we can work something out!

BusyGambling - October 14, 2016, 6:18 pm

Hopefully OP can figure something out, I purchased over $700.00 in credits and both my orders were just cancelled, and I am suspended indefinitely.

White Hat - October 14, 2016, 6:20 pm

If the above is true than problems like that should be resolved before increasing the price 10%

I had this done weeks ago (member on a different forum was selling), got a ps4, and more I never got banned but it was weeks ago it must of been patched already.

edit: what I did with my credits was contact the seller via comments of the item and tell him I'll purchase if you can ship asap, once they agreed I purchased and they shipped and it was never cancelled.

Someone on the last thread tried that and they instantly got caught I heard and both accounts suspended. You need a valid tracking number, maybe there is a way to get around it but you would have to be careful as they are cracking down and suspending accounts.

I buy my own items.

You just go ship some random piece of garbage in the mail and you're all set.

I use nox to simulate the buyer accounts as well

I'm pretty sure the seller handles all the shipping, so Mercari can't cancel it. I wonder how the buyer gets paid though if you can't rate the seller, aka release the funds.

Mercari pays them. Same as legit orders. Whatever amount is paid is added to their balance. They can either withdraw to their bank or use their balance to purchase items.

Exactly I asked the same thing, I lost over $250 credit wise that I had just purchased last night from OP, got banned about 12 hours later.. As far as both my shipments, I don't know how they're going to get paid, I can't like, comment, reply, do anything at all.. Which means I won't be able to release the credits, the package(s) are still in transit and should be here Monday/Tuesday, just kinda odd that OP didn't offer a solution until the items show-up or don't, regardless I still lost $250+ the items I bought one was only $52 and the other was $320.00 I purchased over $700.00 in credits, I'd think with being able to exploit the referral system he could at least give me an account for what I lost, but maybe that's just me. I guess it'd be good business. As I planned on purchasing over $1,000+ more.

Got banned a few days ago, Made a new account. Purchased more credits, commented on 4 listings today. Banned again. Used a drop address and name from Colorado, no link to original account. (my main was in california, where i am). So not sure whats going on..

EDIT:

Made 0 Purchases as well, let it sit for a good 12 hours before i could get to it. Only commented on 4 posts today.

Just used my trap phone to make a new account and he's giving me more credits, lets hope this works...

all pm's responded... Still selling credits will ALSO be getting some aged accounts which can be used with a new strategy that should work very well for those who are having issues...

Taking suggestions on the credit packages that the accounts will be preloaded with, as well.

So far, Im thinking:

100
300
600
1000

Could have been smarter to wait until the morning to work something out... You know, so he can ship it out within a couple of hours
