Which is why we removed the thread and complied with HF threads. And there are certain boundary's to when you say "its not allowed". Its talked about all the time here in a way and nothing is done about it.

Show me proof and explain how you've been scammed. I'll refund you $10 and the rest is up to kpowen. I ain't taking full liability for something I didn't write. Plus 50.50 is how we split.

The fact that you sell ebooks makes you scum.
Also your method isn't allowed I think?
Plus you're broke. So refund OP. :)

Just an FYI since this seems to be related to kpown, Incapability, and their sale of an eBook:

They just recently gave me a copy of their "How to Hack Your School" eBook and most of it was copy-pasted from other sources. I even found something linking back here to Hack Forums. Figured I'd let everyone know in this thread just in case. Will be opening a community report with the proof in a bit.

DWC.

Read PMS for fucks sake.

I asked you to send me the sources + I told you I didn't have any affiliation with writing, just accounting + getting thread designs.

If kpown did copy and paste from sources I'm going to stop doing business with him.
He told me he wrote 24 pages of it + made pictures and shit so idk

Also as for the OP of this post, pm me I'll fucking refund you all of it rn then km going to sleep.

From here on now I will be no way affiliated with kpown nor his ebooks.
