Thread: CRAZE PRODUCTS || A unique Compensation Scheme - Apply today!

Craze Products - October 15, 2016, 7:04 am

Welcome to the Craze Compensation Scheme - Have you been ripped off on HF or previously scammed? This service is 100% free and is considered a giveaway. However before compensation is given out you must be eligible. I hope this is allowed, if not I apologise in advance.

There are a few terms and conditions.

[X] You must have 0 Scam reports open.

[X] You must have 0 real community alerts.

[X] You must of been scammed over 20$.

[X] You must be able to provide proof

[X] If you've claimed compensation in my previous giveaway you can't claim for the same reason.

[X] Must be within the past 3months - no exceptions.

TOTAL COMPENSATED: 215$

I am going to get this thread stickied in the giveaway section so no one can miss this wonderful opportunity.

Compensation will start from 5$ as that is the least accepted. However, I may not compensate you with only money - I may give you some private methods if they relate to the reason you were ripped of or scammed.

If anyone has anymore suggestions for this thread please please do let me know. You can contact me via PM or skype - Live:Crazelegacy

When applying for compensation please do not PM me, last time I had gotten over 100 PM's and let's say half the day went replying to them especially with the timer.

To begin with you must state who you was scammed/ripped of by and then link the thread where you have reported it. If there is no thread you will really need to persuade me with lots and lots of proof. You will then state how much you was scammed/ripped off.

Please do not apply if you are not eligible.

I hope no one is that desperate to fake a dispute. There is a rule that omni made that states that they could get closed/Repkilled.

Ripped off $100.

Bought a shopify store and as soon as I had access to the back end I realised that a handful of customers are complaining about items not showing up, a majority of orders unfulfilled and also owing $67 dollars to shopify.

I just closed it down and cut my losses.

In a nutshell yeah, what if two friends stage a scam and make it look legit, then they just profit off your service. It sounds harsh but this wouldn't be the first.

I was scammed by Jesk (UID 3313557) this guy has no soul and pretended to be nice and all.

The timing of this thread and this guy (Craze) giving me PM yesterday. Would love to get compensated. You know my story and I actually had someone (Bluff uid=2181275) to post it on the dispute section but it was taken down he did not tell me the reason. So I was able to post it as community alert on the thread link you gave. Thanks for the opportunity man.

I was scammed by speedball (we opened an account shop together, he had no scams at this time) it went well for like a week or so but he scammed like 5 people and I confronted him about it over Skype and pm and he's always online and ignores me. The shop has made a large sum of money that he doesn't intend to split (yet I supplied all of the accounts)

I've probably been ripped for a lot more since the scam report was opened however it would be nice to be compensated for the selffy stats he sent me a while ago

Messaged him further about the scam report and he said that he'd answer when he got home (this was 5 hours ago.)

He doesn't owe me anything when it comes to money really, it's nice of him to host this "competition", what he does owe pretty much everyone is honesty.

Perhaps I'm delusional and he's actually really busy these past hours, in which case I apologize and wish you and the contestants luck.
