I would love to be appart of this group, I've been looking for a group lately.
I do want to get known with more contacts from HF.

RainSpider3000 - October 19, 2016, 2:27 pm

The reason I want to join is just because I want to join, and have never applied to a group before.
This is my first time. Just to see what it is like.

Inked ?Feather - October 19, 2016, 2:30 pm

I'm looking for a place to meet new people and post consistent, friendly, high quality content in. I do this around the forums, and have an average of 20 posts per day (even with the 2-week ban I got when I had a HUGE signature) - I want to post somewhere that I can see familiar faces with people that know each other, so it's more than random posts here and there.

I feel like I could offer a lot of insight to the group, as well as good conversation with other members. I'm mostly looking for the friends and connections, and I feel like I would be useful in many ways.

Thanks :)

Nobody - October 19, 2016, 2:37 pm

Looking to meet new people and make new friends. I am just a regular user who works and plays games. Nothing special about me. I am on hack forums every day.

mvmt - October 19, 2016, 2:38 pm

I'd like to join Dawn for the following reasons:

I'm a businessman. I'm always looking to network with others. And no, not your typical HF "businessman." Like I actually have businesses that will be legally registered, crazy right?!

I love meeting new people. Joining groups is always a great opportunity to meet others, whether they have similar to different interests than you. Through Dawn, I'd like to make some new friends (or enemies, that's just how it goes sometimes) and share my interests.

I love learning. Part of meeting new people is that they often know things you don't, unless they're a useless waste of space. A quote I really like is, "If you're the smartest person in the room, you're in the wrong room."

Thanks for your consideration dudes ?

Louis Vos - October 19, 2016, 2:41 pm

I think, a friend is like self-made family (?). This also says how I think about it. I really like group forum discussions about anything actually haha (if I know something of it). Easy application, some more info: I'm Malik and I'm 19 years old and I'm into trading (stocks) and investing.

Thanks a-lot for this chance, seems like a HQ group!

Peace!

LastSession II - October 19, 2016, 2:48 pm

I would love to join this group, because i think it would be fun and i could make more friends ?

Pink-Tshirt - October 19, 2016, 2:49 pm

Hello.

I'm looking for a group.

I am a GFX artist, learning C++ and python at the moment. I could be really useful into making banners and signatures for the group. Friendly member, I spend most of my time helping others.

Would be a pleasure joining this group !

Have a great day.

Water can't make friends guys be aware of this. he is a queer.

pvnk - October 19, 2016, 2:55 pm

I'd want to be a part of a sub-community that can provide insight on certain life decisions. It would be really fortunate way to start my career on this forum. To be quite honest, I'm a transparent individual who always speak what's on my mind. Therefore, you'll never see pretentious posts from me as you might with other individuals. (As you probably witness on this very thread.)

Horizon - October 19, 2016, 2:55 pm

I'd like to join if there's any consideration for me...

I'm a chill guy, been away for a little while until the last month or so and expect to stay active going forward.

I'm into Photography, design and marketing. ?

Tsunfire - October 19, 2016, 2:56 pm

I would be pleased and honored to join the Dawn community.

I am currently working on a few personal projects and no this is not some shitty HF method or eBook; therefore, I believe I have quite a bit to contribute in that regard. I also served as a freelance designer for years offsite. I love and spend a majority of my free time drawing, gaming, watching anime, and meeting new people.

Thanks for reading my application.

FilmGuy - October 19, 2016, 2:58 pm

So no one likes to follow directions...

I would like to join this group because the user bar matches my signature. Also I think we should take the group into a Photo/Video direction as this is lacking from HF. I would love to head that project.

FiftyTwo - October 19, 2016, 3:10 pm

I'd like to join due to the fact that I'd really like to expand my knowledge on HF and this is usually done for me by joining groups. I always learn a lot when invited to a new group. I can also make a lot new friends as there's quite a few members in Dawn. I'm a nice-hearted, very active and helpful member and I'd love to join Dawn to express that.

Thanks for this opportunity, Water Aura, and good luck to everyone joining.

AzCh - October 19, 2016, 3:13 pm

I'd be a good friend because I can give my honest opinion on a situation, without sugar coating it and making it seem like something it's not, and don't get me wrong, I'm friendly but can also be assertive when needed. Other than that, a friendship always starts when someone gives someone else a chance, so give me chance, Water Aura. I know that was cheesy as fuck haha, but thank you for reading this.

Muddy Waters - October 19, 2016, 3:23 pm

Why hello there great sir. Water Aura, why no fire?

Anyways here's a paragraph about myself:

Muddy Waters, greatly influenced by him as a guitarist, like most successful guitarists actually. (I'm very unsuccessful though so far).

So, I play a lot of games like League of Legends and CSGO. I'm like mid-tier level nothing godlike. Other than gaming I do play and listen and analyze a ton of music. Anyways, I'm kinda laid back, not really a fan of stressing. My schedule is pretty laid back to fit my lifestyle, school 2 days a week, chill 5 days a week. I do sell a lot of League of Legends accounts on this forum so if you need anything league related just let me know in the future. I have great, unbeatable prices.

If anyone of you guys wanna talk, I'm up. I'll talk about literally anything. But music is my favorite topic, also biology and fish keeping.

Ghost Rider™ - October 19, 2016, 3:27 pm

Lithe - October 19, 2016, 3:29 pm

I was in it a while ago but I took a break from HF (Old name was Lithe)

I've been pretty active lately, generally hang out in the computer or SRPP section. I like talking to people and debating issues since I'm basically the opposite of the politically correct North-American mindset. I'm lit af as well so you can take that into consideration.

Flaws. - October 19, 2016, 3:29 pm

Add me if you want

Method - October 19, 2016, 3:35 pm

Add me in if you want to exchange knee pictures

that'll make us good friends

Career - October 19, 2016, 4:04 pm

My paragraph:

I'd be a good friend because I tend to trust people too fast which is good and bad at the same time. I'm always online so I'll always be there for anyone that needs help with anything, needs someone to do something for them or just someone to talk to. I'm very skilled and talented so that could be something else I bring to the table as a plus. I'm just an overall cool, chill, mature dude. I'm going to be that person that you could always count on.

Additional stuff I'd like to add:

In case it matters I'm very good at social engineering, snapchat growing, marketing, social networking, accounting etc.

If you have any questions feel free to PM me.

Thank you.

Riyu - October 19, 2016, 4:09 pm

I'd be a good friend because I am always online and I can be there to talk to anyone and about anything. I also like cats

Djehuty - October 19, 2016, 4:16 pm

I think I would make a good friend because I have a large stash of memes and have been active in Dawn in the past, just missed a thread and got kicked out :(

In all seriousness I really did like the group when I was in, I made some friends and had a lot of laughs in the skype chat. I check the subforum every 2-3 days and I guess I missed the thread which I needed to post in.

Hey here's my application;

Good question though, I think I'm a good friend because I really listen to what they have to say and how they feel about a situation... Friendship is to me more about being there when needed and making the other feel good when in your company. Of course having fun is also one the most valuable things when hanging out with them.

I'm a Freelance Web & Graphics designer based in France, born and bred in London doing my small adventure. Here's my website: bendoarts.com, and a few of my GFX work:

I'd like to be a part of Dawn to crack some top memes with the rest of the group, as well as get to know everyone. I also challenge every member to a rap battle if I join.

On the serious note, I'd like to meet some new friendly and not so friendly members, bully them where needs be if they make me cringe, and also help if people want me to. Can help with a variety of networking and security I guess + more.

p.s doing degree in the above so no bullshit I promise thnx

Tenma - October 19, 2016, 6:26 pm

Being that the group doesn't really have a direction right now and I know little about the group, I'll tell you why I am a good friend and then talk a little about myself. It will be up to you to decide whether I'd be a good fit, and I understand and respect your decision if you don't think that I am.

I am a good friend because I care. I care about those around me, I care about helping others, and I care about cultivating meaningful relationships. I give strong advice on matters that I am knowledgeable about, but so too am I able to admit when I don't know much about a subject. Most of all, I am loyal. Never will you see me talk poorly behind a friend's back, nor lie to or deceive them. All of these qualities make me a good friend, and those that have these same qualities - regardless of race, sexual orientation, political beliefs, or anything else - will get along well with me. This is because, no matter others beliefs or characteristics, if they are good people, I will happily become friends with them and share intelligent, insightful discussion.

Now a little about myself. I'm a hard worker: I have two jobs and I'm a college student double majoring in computer science and music. These experiences allow me to be knowledgeable in many areas, and help me to have great discussions with my friends and colleagues. I'm a football lover, and an avid sports fan. I love video games, especially high strategy games and RPGs, and I enjoy reading manga. I'm an aspiring web developer, and programmer in general.

If you have any questions about me, feel free to ask. Hopefully I get the opportunity to participate in your group!

Vanderbilt - October 19, 2016, 6:48 pm

Hey, I'm Montana of 300. But, you can call me OZON3. I have always wanted to join a group and when I saw the prestigious Dawn opening its gates, I just had to apply.

Well anyways. I am really friendly to anybody even if they don't have the same opinions as me. I love to debate but nit in an aggressive demeaning way. I love to help people with me skills in SQL dumping and cracking. I also love to host giveaways especially if I could in the name of Dawn. I have many friends/ references. If anybody would like to know.

Regulus

Bluffer

I also enjoy being part of a group where it doesn't have to be all about trolling and making money. I want to be part of a group that likes to make HF fun.

I appreciate the time anyone took to look at this and I wish you a good day!
~Montana of 300

(If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask me!)

???? Shana - October 19, 2016, 7:08 pm

Hi there, I can be a little shy due to my social anxiety, but I'd like to think of myself as a good friend. I have been through a lot in life that I can explain later, but because of this, I have been exposed to many situations and many different types of people. I am very non-judgmental and feel that everyone should have someone they can go to to talk about literally anything. I know what it feels like to be alone and how just opening up to someone can really help lift someone's mood so that's what I try to provide for my friends and even strangers.

I'm also very optimistic and have a logically positive mindset so I look towards improving myself and the community.

Guardians - October 19, 2016, 8:21 pm

Hi,

My name is Devin, I go by the alias "Guardians" online. The reason I adopted this name as my pseudonym online is due to the fact that I love protecting others and assisting them in need. I will admit, I am anxious when I have to talk to those who have a higher status than me, and that applies to Hack Forums too, where individuals with higher reputation deserve higher respect in my opinion. I love talking to other people about business, business is my motive. I am an aspiring accountancy major at my school and Hack Forums is the perfect place to increase my social skills despite a large majority of users acting unprofessional - but that's a way of life and there will always be those sorts of people. However, besides business, I'm a very open-minded individual. Politics, gaming, life, you name it and I will talk about it. Hopefully, within Dawn, I can develop friendships with other users where I can express myself and learn about them. It is important to maintain respect and dignity for others, and treat others how you'd wish to be treated. Hence, that's why I'd consider myself a good friend and a respectable member to represent Dawn.

Thank you,
Guardians ?

BR?ND?N - October 19, 2016, 8:26 pm

Hello I'am Brenden and I'am 17 and American. I've been on HF for a few months now and being the post where I'am i've already racked up 5.5k post. I think i'd fit in with Dawn because I'm a care-free kind of guy, quite chill, and I enjoy making people laugh and laughing with em. I can provide help to Dawn members and contribute to all post within the SF. I'm the kind of guy you want in a group because despite my claims of having a life, I do not. So you'll get an active member who wants to join and make new friends, instead of somebody who just wants a pretty userbar (although being an Arizonan that userbar reminds me of my home everytime I see it).

Moneyroller - October 19, 2016, 8:32 pm

I would be a good friend well... one because I am quite friendly and very active. I am interested in building new friendships/connections within a group and it seems like this is the group I would fit best in. I am a college student always looking to expand my knowledge and make new friends!

J?cob - October 19, 2016, 9:16 pm

I feel I am a good friend because I love talking. I can provoke conversation with anyone really, I genuinely love learning what others are about and what make them who they are. I can have serious or fun conversations. I like communication and collaboration with others. I really enjoy talking to people and creating a long lasting bond. I always loved message boards and game servers because I enjoyed communicating with fellow members, being a part of a community or group is very important for me. I don't strive to be in dawn for the userbar or some status symbol, I want to be in dawn because I believe it's a great outlet to meet friends.

I love to do group projects with others. Even though this is not the direction of dawn I believe I can build a relationship with other users who share my same interests. I'm into videogames, graphic design, fashion and computer science. I find my interests to be diverse and popular amongst members of HF.

B?ker - October 20, 2016, 9:47 am

Baysick - October 20, 2016, 8:03 pm

I take it you guys like Short and Sweet? I use to have a dog named Dawn, until we have to return him to the adoption center because our room mate never told us he was allergic to dogs.

I'm nice to anyone as long as you don't give me a reason not to. I may be blunt with many things, but I'm never a bad friend. You want friends to treat you with respect, I do, so I will treat anyone I meet here with as much respect as any other stranger to stranger. But as long as we have a connection to something, we can work on our friendship.

I'm nice and I don't bite, let's grab a bite!

Hello!

My name is Emil, and I'm currently a college student at the age of 18.

This is the perfect opportunity for me to find more friends in this community. I'll also be active in the group.

I have a lot of experience in Photoshop, and I really would like to do stuff for the group.

JustSmile ? - October 22, 2016, 6:02 am

I am active and doing good conversations-deals.

Koodex - October 22, 2016, 12:30 pm

I would feel Honored if you'd give me a chance to join Dawn.

I'm currently working on some projects for college mainly in Assembly, Java, Js & Html/Css as I started with my IT studies in september . I've also been designing for a while but lately I'm more interested in Programming than making graphics. I will also try being a very good friend too you and the rest of the members as I'm a very kind and understanding person. c:

Thanks for reading through my application.

Opening a recruitment because why not?

I respect it.

Some information about me:

- 1) Private Investigation Specialist (7+ Years)
- 2) Graphic Designer (+8 Years)
- 3) Very Respectful & Great Sense of Humor (For Life ;))

No.

Elitas - October 22, 2016, 3:21 pm

I'd be a good friend because I can be fairly active and make a few posts in the subforum each day which could be somewhat helpful. I've made most of my posts in the lounge & hacking forums and I think Dawn seems like a chill group so I'd like the opportunity to join. I'd be exceptionally loyal.

I could join to just get to be active in the sub-forum and get to know more people on here better. I feel that I could help with some marketing tips, pc tips, social media tips, as best as I can. I'm just a person who likes to have fun. I'm working on a couple of small separate ideas and projects at the moment, and can help any other content creators, entrepreneurs, etc.

Thank you!

"a small paragraph discussing why you'd be a good friend"

Ill start with I love hearing peoples problems.

I may be semi young compared to others, but I have been through enough stuff to understand where they are coming from.

Whats one thing a lot of people wish they could have during that time? A friend to talk to and listen to.

And thats what I love doing. I love being there for them when no one else will.

Plus sometimes im funny for like an hour or so

I'm more active in group sub forums than I am in general sections.

Would love to meet some more people from around HF and I feel dawn would be a great place to do that.

I'm 23, really chill and my humor is the best thing about me.

XXXfranky - October 23, 2016, 12:58 pm

I would like to be apart of Dawn because I want to meet new people and possibly make new friends online and I am also active on Hackforums and I will try my best to help Dawn member's if they ask anything. I specialize in SST, Marketing, Doxing, Gaming and I can teach people on what I specialize in.

Im new to the forums, but active and have the feeling I can add something to the board.

So far my posts are a combination of being helpful and helping other members and plain old bullshitting.

My goals here are to learn as much as possible, my interests and knowledge are broad.

From web development to photography and graphic design.

From music production and djing (actual club and festival gigs, not a bedroom dj) to coding and the art of money making.

Oh and I am 29, so dont expect any drama behaviour or mental breakdowns from me ;-)

I'd be a good friend because I'm always there for people, regardless(usually) of what I'm doing, as long as you manage to catch me when I'm on. I'm always trying to help out my friends and others whenever I get the chance, be it giving back to the community via Giveaways, or giving charity if someone has hit a rough spot in their life.

-Insert standard group application ass kissing here-

I'd be a good friend because I've been lounging and helping on HF for years now. I don't backstab and I help whenever I can. My dating advice is godlike and my drunk rambling is hilarious. I've been a member of HF for a little bit over four years now, during my time here I've made some friends in the community, From Empire and Red lions members to normal users. I've also been in a lot of groups, from L'appel du vide too Apex. From philisophy to business. I'd love to join a group of friendly lads (and girls) just talking and lounging. but no matter what group project comes up, I'm up for it. I've seen it all, I've done it all and I'd love to do it all over again.

So if you want an all around semi old-fag, I'd be glad to fill that position.

To put it abruptly, most of you guys applications blow. You're just repeating the same shit. Make yourself look interesting.

grail - November 3, 2016, 4:31 pm

I am a good friend because I am always there for my friends. I love listening to what they have to say and the ideas that they raise. If a friend ever asks me to do something for him or her I will most likely do it depending on what the task is. I find myself as a good friend because I also don't flake. If we have plans to squad up at 5, at 4:45 I'm where we are squading up. None of that "yeah cant make it bro" type shit.

Anyways those are a couple reasons why I am a good friend.

P??sonl?af - November 3, 2016, 5:44 pm

The first rays of light that sustain a new day. Poisonleafs Dawn ApplicationGeneralHiya, I call myself Poisonleaf or Poison in short, I'm 26 years old and out there I work as a Sous-Chef in a restaurant.

In my personal time I like to play some online games mostly World of Warcraft and write down my thoughts and idea's on human philosophy, religion, my current state of mind and various other topics.

I also like to write in general as I see it as a form of expression and relaxation along with working on my own customization of a world of warcraft server, well more like create it again from the ground up.

In life I'm a mellow down to earth kind of guy and like to surround me with people who see the world differently.

ApplicationWhy would I be a good friend? Well I would say that it's hard to exactly explain why as you have to get to know a person before you can make such a personal opinion first but they are some general guidelines that would describe me as a good friend.

I'm a very open-minded and respectful person, while I'll never go a decent discussion out of its way I'll always stay respectful to your opinion and If I would believe that you are in fact incorrect or making an mistake I'll clearly state why.

I'm a very decent listener and am always up for a conversation or chat regardless of the topic or subject.

As I said before I'm a chef so I can create decent food which is rice.

There more to it than that but as I stated before it's best to get to know a person to truly know if they are a worthy friend.

Thank you for reading and have a nice day.

Poisonleaf.

I'd be a good friend to have 'cause I'm always there for others, and I'm very determined & stubborn. In a good way that is. Dawn seems like a very fun group & I hope that I can make some friends over there. Thank you for taking the time to read this! :)

Hi I'm Agreeable - November 4, 2016, 5:31 pm

It would be an honor to join Dawn.

I am currently spending most of my time coding, working on gfx, and listening to music.

I have quite a lot of ideas of how I can contribute to dawn.

I am very easy to work with, and I only have positive rep.

Thanks for reading my application. Good luck to the other Applicants!

SIM-3100985 - November 4, 2016, 7:35 pm

I don't have alot of friends on the internet, and I'd love to make new friends and meet new people.

I try to be as nice as possible to people and I treat others as I want to be treated myself.

Joining Dawn would probably be a perfect opportunity to make friends and interact to others.

Nick (Name) - November 4, 2016, 9:35 pm

I think I would be a great friend, I'm always around when you need me the most, I absolutely love talking. I'd be there when you're feeling down, and emotional. I enjoy making people laugh and feel like nothing is wrong in the world. I enjoy eating out and having fun like, mini golf, movies, netiflix and chill, just chill, partying, having picnics, walking on the beach, etc. I usually have common interest with most people and can relate and have an intelligent conversation with most topics, except for sports, I watch a few but don't know stats about every sport out there. I feel like I'm writing some kind of date application, anyways if you're interested you know how to contact me ;)

LastSession V - November 5, 2016, 7:07 am

Dawn, in my opinion, has some of the greatest people I have met on Hackforums, I am extremely friendly, can help others with many tasks such as Ratting, GFX, Monetization, and a few other topics. I feel like this group in particular would be good to meet new people.

Not to mention, the userbar is really nice working so gratz to whoever designed that!

Yeah, that's pretty much it, I am 17, currently in High School, and in need of a group! :)

Reissfeider - November 5, 2016, 2:48 pm

I would be a good friend because I won't betray you, and I'll be there when you're in need. I'm also really good at giving advice so there's that. Also, if my friends make bad decisions, I wouldn't bash them on it, I would just inform them and educate them more on what the right thing was to do since everybody fucks up. Dawn seems like an amazing group and I would be really proud to be part of it.

ailo - November 5, 2016, 5:13 pm

I'd love to apply for this because i'm always nice and friendly to people, and i treat them very nice as i love meeting new people and talk and hang out.

Anonymise - November 5, 2016, 6:39 pm

I will be a good friend as I always put them first. I can talk about anything depending on whatever is discussed. I have a broad range of interests so you can count on me to be really active.

Egregious Jr. - November 5, 2016, 6:51 pm

I'm a good friend because I care for others, and I am always looking out for other users. If someone is scammed, I always remind them to make sure they put valid reputation, and to enter their reports into the deal disputes database. If there's a scammer going around, I make a community alert. I care about others and I'm a very nice person.

sm?ked - November 5, 2016, 6:55 pm

I would be interested in joining Dawn to meet some of the HF community. I'm quite new to the scene and I'm hoping to become a part of the community and meet new people. I haven't really ever tried to put myself out there in the community and I think it's something I am finally ready to try.

I hope I can be considered

Best regards,
complexitE

Blue Shadow - November 5, 2016, 7:04 pm

I'd be a good friend because I literally never get mad at people and I guess i'm fun to talk to.

I just kinda enjoy life and feed off knowledge.

And I really just want to be in a group.

p.s. I love the enter key today.

scam. - November 5, 2016, 7:46 pm

A small paragraph hmmm

I'm just a fun dude to have around. I love to talk about all sorts of shit and I've always got strange stories from my life to tell. I'm all about that loyalty and I'll do anything for my homies. I am just searching for more places to talk and have fun. I don't know if a couple of sentences fits the small paragraph description but thats all I got. Not very good at talking about myself mixedBasket - November 5, 2016, 7:48 pm

Paragraphs were never my favorite thing to write, oh well.

Looking to join to meet some new people, maybe teach a few things and learn some too. I'm great with technology and hardware so if something ever arises that involves that I'll help in a heartbeat. Besides that I'm looking to get more active on here, and would love a some people to talk to a long the way.

Streamah - November 6, 2016, 12:12 pm

I've been wanting to join your group Dawn for many reasons. I recently just ended a two year relationship with this girl that I thought was the love of my life... we ended on bad terms and it has been killing me for days now so I'm just looking to meet new people. I have seen many users across HF that are in your group and they seem pretty nice and friendly, and that's who I would like to surround myself with.

I'm experienced in many fields that include Anonymity, Privacy, and Pentesting and it would be great to show other users that don't really know about the field, but are looking to get into it. It would be a great opportunity for me to join your group because I would like to meet new members of the forum, and in your group.

Thank you for your time,
Streamah.

B?ker - November 6, 2016, 4:50 pm

Well I am great friend as I would do anything for my friends, as I hope they would do in return. I have lent my friends money many times prior and knowing if I ever one day have financial difficulty they would be willing to help, obviously don't ever want to be there. I have a strong faith in loyalty over majority, and what I mean by that is I'd rather have a few loyal friends than majority of said my school be my friend.

Besides that I am from United States, Boston Region (North East). I have lived here my entire life, currently working to become a full stack web developer. Currently have experience in PHP, HTML5, CSS3, JS, and NodeJS. I am currently working on a few projects I am working on a verification system to prevent imposters in the market place, kinda in a way like Keybase.io, but more in-depth and marketed towards HF users and other marketplaces. Besides that I am working on a few other projects that I plan on launching on HF here soon, 1. URL Shortner, that would advertise HF Products instead of random porn ads like some, this will also have more information coming soon. My final project I am talk about publicly is my File website, not like a Survey for Download website, but something more like Mega. I have been working on it for quite sometime it will have a premium subscription that all HF members will get a discount to use.

I love Jack Daniels, idk if any of you do!

Hey, My name is 4Head or better known as Josh.

I'm a friendly guy and like to put my 2 sense in when I can, I love to help out members in anyway possible. My goal for this year is to become "trusted" enough to start up an exchanging service, Loyal members will get upgrades and gifts in the form of awards. My goal is to not so much to make money but to help out the community and prevent as much scamming in the currency exchange section as possible (I myself am a victim of this).

I don't have any friends on the site as of right now and Id love to make some I feel like this would be the best group for that seeing as you need to be a good friend to get in haha.
Well thanks for reading hope to see you soon.

NoneStar - November 6, 2016, 9:32 pm

I would love to join to share what I know and see what others know, I have some graphical knowledge as well as a lot on trivial stuff like games and certain tv shows. I'm taking german in school and Japanese as a hobby so if anyone would need help with something from those I could try to help to the best of my ability. I wasn't active for quite some time on the sight while taking breaks in between but now I'm back to try to learn instead of just linger around. I also could help with any grunt work that would occur within the group just to help things run smoothly. This would be the first group I'd be in so I would make sure to do the best I can at helping the group out.

Vince - November 6, 2016, 10:22 pm

Honestly, just want to join a group where you can chill, talk to people and not have a ton of drama. So far, no groups I have been in outside of Empire really have offered that. I know it isn't a paragraph, but just wanted to be to the point.

False King - November 7, 2016, 5:13 am

I'd like to join this group :-)

I generally come on at least once a day to check on stuff and most of the time also write some posts, but so far I haven't really met that many people on here so I think being in a group like this would really improve my experience on HF.

Brewin - November 7, 2016, 12:45 pm

Hey! My name is Garrette, but on here I've been known as Brewin and Accora. I haven't done much in contributing beside one eBook I wrote and sold and I help where I can in the website development section and SEO. I have donated toward HF and would be available to do so for the name of the group if need be! I don't post too much as I am usually like I said just lurking in the development/seo sections waiting for a time I can assist. I am on every day though and I would be active in any SF of the group as well!

I'm a good fit for Dawn primarily because I'm awesome (or so my mom tells me). I love dogs, medical field is my niche and I like to make new friends. I can loyal and honest but furthermore I'm always open to new ideas and trying new things. If accepted it'd be a nice experience and the starting point to what could be an endless chain of potential.

I think I found the last sentence in a fortune cookie can't be too sure..

But seriously I'm a cool guy and this seems like a cool group combined we'd be cool x2

Kill Joy - November 20, 2016, 1:18 pm

I'm generally a caring, more genuine guy than most people these days. I take my own personal time to help those who PM me and message me on skype. No PM goes ignored! I used to be active in the appraisals section helping people understand the value of their account. Other than that I joined the United States Marine Corps and am willing give to give my life to my country because it is the greatest country on earth and I believe it is worth protecting for future generations.

Hi, my name is Chris and my online alias is Ariana. I am twenty four years old and currently have a job, but I tend to have a lot of spare time as it's a on the move job. I've been on this site for around four days and I have accumulated a lot of friends, people who have helped me and who I've helped financially. Some names go by LastSession, Rubixa, N0ysa, Syme and a few more. I have currently made my own email bomber and leaked it for people's personal use and plenty of other things that are beneficial for cracking and getting accounts - not to mention my three giveaways hosted today. I treat people they way I wish to be treated and I have respect for people who act maturely, I also enjoy socialising and helping people and or their day. Being apart of your group would make me very happy and most probably make me a better person as a whole, I'd love to meet people and engage in activities together. I honesty hope you consider me for your group.

It's a minimum requirement, it doesn't guarantee a spot but it definitely helps your chances.

We're using this paragraph to see what sort of person you are. We're making friends and opening new doorways.

Quackles - November 20, 2016, 7:25 pm

Hello,

I'm the type of guy who likes to separate his online life and personal life, although this being said I'd like to provide you with an insight into my online activities.

I love exploring new business opportunities and building a following; I'm deeply interested in SEO at the moment and continuously researching and learning about it.

Although I've stated I separate my online life and personal life, building good relationships with trusted and chilled members of communities is a perk to being deeply invested into the things I love to do, and investing time into things is something that pays off - putting time into building a good relationship.

With all that being said, a person who can describe himself with ease shouldn't really be trusted in my book.

I feel you should get to know the person yourself instead of allowing them to describe themselves to you. They could be a totally different person to how they've described.

Anyway, hopefully you've enjoyed my confusing read.

Best of luck to everyone and the team of Dawn.

Prince™ - November 20, 2016, 7:44 pm

Hi! I'm Prince. I've been a part of HF community for over 5 years right now. It has been a great ride so far. Really enjoying the stay here with HF day to day.

As far as my HF history is concerned, I've been a part of TechSperts, HF Writ3r and Rhythm and couple of other groups whose names I don't remember right now. Have some skills with PPD/CPA. Have earned a bit in the past.

I'm basically a Gamer now. Been into Cs:Go and Overwatch lately. Enjoying both the games. Moving onto my personal info, I'm one of those person who always stay calm and love to talk to people, make new friends. It's not just about making new friends, maintaining a good sense of relationship with the friends for a long term is what I consider more.

Not really a person who makes people laugh all the time. But I do enjoy having a good giggle with people with good sense of humor. In terms of my presence in HF, I've never received a warning or ban or being held responsible for scamming any member. I really consider that a success. Being here for also 5 years makes me feel good. ?

Recently, I've come back now after all the university stuffs over with and I'm being an active member lately. Hence, I'm fairly getting attracted towards group recruitment. Only those that interests me the most. Group like this are promised to have members who will not only be your friends, but as a family as well.

Thank you for reading my application! Good luck to all participants! ?

I respect those around me, and treat them how I would wish to be treated.

I always make sure to help my friends out if need be, financially, and with any knowledge I may have.

Or with physical help, such as moving something, or working.

I really love doing giveaways, and giving to others, it makes me happy to someone who's wanted something, getting it.

I know that sounds ridiculously cookie cutter, I apologize, I don't mean it to be, I just really enjoy those things, lol.

I mostly just trade on here, and conduct business in a professional manner.

I would love to be apart of this group. I'd like to join, to meet more people to become friends with. I'm a very friendly and helpful person (when possible). I always try to help out people, especially when i've got free / spare time (a lot of the time). I'm online on HackForums a lot and would like to have an extra place to talk to people over and possibly help people out when needed :)

Underworldproblem - December 4, 2016, 8:10 pm

I would like to be apart of this group in order to contribute my skills and personality to your group. My personality consists of loyalty and kindness. I revolve around these two words because of my actions in and outside of Hackforums. I help people where they are in mental or physical pain through consultation and guidance. My compassion for others institutes my loyal behavior. I do not ditch friends and leave them hanging. I ride with them till the day I die. The personality demonstrated here is what a true friend should be. If you want the ideal friend, I'm one click away!

Weebex - December 5, 2016, 9:29 pm

I would like to be in this group because I would be that kind of friend who is a damn weab and a "great" graphics designer. I would be that one good friend who's got you in the gaming area. Also I need new friends to be real, need a new circle of friends or just random people with similar interests.

Anything else?: Yukino is life <3

Eagle 95 - December 11, 2016, 1:26 am

Hello.

My name's Michael. I'm a good friend because I know how to listen to other people. Today people don't listen others, hell, they don't even listen to themselves. When you're talking I am paying full attention to the words that are coming out of your mouth and not thinking about my reply until you finish your talk. That's why many people like to talk to me and always say that I have great advice (when I usually say something that's logical step to do ?). I've never back-stabbed anyone, hate lying and hypocrites. I'm an (brutally) honest person which can bite me in the ass sometimes and like to relax a lot. You guys seem not to care about buyins, making money and shit. Guess you want to have fun. I want to have fun with you, too.

I can't remember if I applied for this, ill just do it again!

My name is Jesse. I have worked in retail for my adult life and I have a girlfriend but not many friends, they all backstabbed me at the first chance they had. IRL, I like to keep my circle small because that means there is less drama and shit to deal with. I feel that online I have quite a few friends. I think it's easier that way. I am always the one that people come to if they feel down. I am always up for a chat. Just add me on skype and what not. I think that I would be a great option for dawn as I am very active in all groups that I am in. For example, the order is in the top 5 sectors that I post in. It's really simple honestly. Want Dawn to be my second group! I absolutely love the graphics the group has. But about my self.. Me personally, am a nice, humble dude. I treat people with care and don't judge by what they do. I want to meet new people who are also pretty cool to talk to, and not so much as a dick. I don't know what to say really, but I believe I'd be a good friend to anyone who wants to be because I'm not a troll, or a rude person. I respect everyone equally.

Punctur - December 14, 2016, 11:09 am

I would love to join Dawn as it seems like the most inclusive group on HF.

I know some members in the group and they are all very chill and nice people!

I have also heard the same about the group in general.

A little about me:

I mostly lurk around HF in the marketplace and buy/sell products and services. I used to (and kind of still do) run/operate a website dev service. I have earned ~$20K or so over the last 2 years from HF alone and love how easy it is to monetize your products.

Aside from the marketplace, I regularly hang out in the lounge and also group subforums. I am not in a lot of groups but I have been in a decent # of groups on HF and I prefer to contribute to the group over the public lounge.

Also, for anyone interested, I am doing a Christmas Challenge for HF. The main purpose of it is to give to others and help out the less fortunate during the holidays. Check it out if interested and Merry Christmas to all!: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5493630>

Thanks and good luck to everyone! ?

I'm a good friend because I reciprocate what others put in. I'm honest, mindful, critic, praiser, teacher, listener, learner, online all the time.

I also want to be in ur group because i like ur user bar.

I'm not very familiar with many groups here on Hackforums but I'd like to be apart of a welcoming atmosphere where I can connect with others and overall have an enjoyable time having mindful conversations and gaming. I consider myself to be a good friend because I'm very accepting of others and have a good sense of humor. I don't take anything personally and honestly just want to participate in an active community where I can find others to play games with, especially League of Legends, and just relax. I've been looking to put together a group for quite a while now, not on Hackforums, but one where we all can just hop into any game and have a good time.

I apologize if my application isn't up to par with your standards, but all I'm looking for is to be in a relaxed environment with others who enjoy playing games and having an intelligent conversation. Thanks in advance.

Im kinda new here, I want to see what it is like to be in a group. I have many interests, so you can talk with me about anything. Plus, maybe there is some exclusive information in your group threads. :P

I want to join the group because I really like the user bar
I would've said my life story but the main reason is the user bar
Thanks for reading my detailed application
