before commenting please actually check the links

since this post, the user has vacation banned and made up excuse that he got 'raided' all obvious lies. rest in peace my money..?

I know I won't be seeing these funds again, even though it sucks.

I seen his thread and trusted him because his awards, he had no scam reports at all and only negs were just random from what I seen. No complaints about deals..

I went first, even though he offered middleman.

not only that but this user has bullshit and trolled me and now claims he got raided

How come your not using a MM for this high amount ??

Even with a MM I'd go 50/50

Hope you get this resolved.

Even if the person has over 3k rep still use a MM. Its just common sense. Sorry you got scammed but you really need to be more careful and thats your own fault.

Of course, He's tommy's little bitch. Since Tommy isn't around he is allowed to do whatever he wants and no actions are taken on him.

no worries, his skype got leaked to me including some other information of his that I've passed along to police and my lawyer for my case that I opened on him. those wonderful "blackhat" awards are only going to help my case.

it's hilarious that he did remove all his comments from this thread but yet I still have screenshots and I'm sure it can easily be brought back up if needed.
