Shitty/10

Jk I like it a lot. It's almost pop art or something, but more unique and 'you'
Keep at it, and I wish you the best of luck with your store

I honestly don't mind it it looks good. It's only the lips that doesn't look very "to scale/realistic" but other than that, good job!

I thought they looked okay if you imagine she is that hoe that played Laura Croft
Abjelina Joleine or something

Ah

Now that you've said that I see it. Needs to be a little less 'sharp'- I see what he tried to do, but he needs to curve it a little bit more

If I need such graphics, I would order from you. Once I needed to vectorize images for playing cards - I spent a lot of time looking for something like this. If you keep on your style and develop it properly - it could be very cool.

I'll look forward into doing business with you soon ?.

I know what you're going with with the cut from person to vector, but it doesn't work in this case

The work itself is really nice, you've got hair spot on and your shading is really good

2073436 - October 21, 2016, 10:26 am

overall, it looks pretty shitty
my eyes don't like it

darkfenopro - October 21, 2016, 10:27 am

Looks really nice OP maybe one day you could make some good money doing this

The lips really ruin this because they just don't look right due to how sharp they are. You seem like you're trying to emit the idea of realism with shadows but you fall flat due to how you don't show case shading on the sides of the nose which makes the girl's nose looks flat. Everything else is done fine but because you didn't include the rest of her head I'm imagining this girl to have a bald head. Whenever you do a profile/portrait of someone's head you always include the entire head down to at least the top of the shoulders otherwise you're swaying the viewer in terms of composition.

I'd recommend just going back to this and refining it as right now it doesn't look very good.

Looks good, the only thing I dislike is your coloring.

Her skin is very pale compared to her and her eyes dont pop like she does.
