Hello HF!

Have you ever have a 1v1 in Call of Duty, CS:GO, or other games? Well talk about it here or PM a user asking to 1v1.

Free hosting and free domain.

Doesn't seem fun.

You have two members.

Free host and free domain means you're cheap and so is the site.

Basically this, the domain looks really unprofessional, so does the 'free webhosting' for the more advanced users who know how to check that.

IF you want to get an active forum or community investments are needed.
