Thread: I need a Payment Processor

Hello HF, I'm looking for a Payment Processor which fits my maybe unique needs. For all I know this may be how they all work and I just didn't do enough research.

Basically I need a payment processor that accepts paypal as a payment then holds on to all my sales.

Lets say I sold 5 ebooks at 5 bucks a piece, so my balance on the site is then 25 bucks, I am then allowed to withdraw it to my paypal when I want to.

Is there a site that does this?

That would make it basically chargeback free for you, but they still get chargebacked.

So I doubt there is a processor like this, sorry op.

I dont think such a processor exists for obvious reasons.

I think 2Checkout might be what you need.

You can use BMTMicro for this.

You are trying to source a holder here indirectly, lol.

gumroad.com they pay out once a week or once a 2 weeks from my exprience, they hold the paypal payments.

Doesnt exist, the processor will be in losses if customers file chargebacks, hence makes no sense. Try Rocketr/HexPay/Selly for direct sales.

You can use Mr Guidee but payments will be sent automatically to your PayPal everytime you make a sale.

What are your 'unique needs' besides the holding part?

The only one closest to this I can think of is Gumroad.

Also, it seems you're looking for a paypal holder. Not allowed here.
