Thread: Hotel for the night

Limited Edition - October 23, 2016, 1:27 am

I have to drive for about 12 hours tomorrow to do two deliveries. Work gave me £120 and will be booking me into a hotel. I'm leaving at 3am so I should be done by 2-3pm and have all afternoon and night sat in a hotel with fuck all to do.

Any suggestions on how to pass the time? I've decided to dig out an old laptop I had from about 6 or 7 years ago and update it a little. I'll probably just sit on skype chatting shit with people lol

That's the best you can do.

Start with a game that is not demanding much, etc tibia :)

I usually browse Reddit to pass time throughout the day, I read some pretty interesting stuff sometimes.

I've contacted an old buddy who lives close to where I'm staying, he's in work until late though so I can't go for a drink until around 9pm. So I have like 6 hours+ to waste.

I guess it could be a good idea to come up with an advertisement plan.

I pass time through reading, if you're interested in football/soccer I'd recommend Ancelotti's & Pep's book. They're both, very very good.

Why not just watch netflix? Seems like the perfect solution for me.

I've met a friend from the UK and we went out drinking last night.

I met a motorcycle fanatic that let me take one of his bikes out for an all day twisty run.

I met two girls that work up front, one of them just had a birthday and we all went out and drank.

You can find stuff to do.

I'm there for one night only, I do plan to hit the bar with an old buddy if he can spare the time to meet up. If not I'll probably chat with the bar staff and whoever else is there.

My first plan was to hit [BRAND NAME REMOVED] or pof and try and get a fuck for the night but I really can't be fucked signing up to those apps and then wasting my time and ending up alone for the night lol.

The problem is I'm going to be there from like 3pm and probably sleep early since I'll leave to come home at 3am the next morning (Unless I'm hung over then i'll leave it a little later)
