I might take use of this. I'll PM you if I'm in need.

vouch for this guy, doing some great work

I've looked at a few of the pictures you've linked. Most of your work is actually pretty nice but some of it would fall under the "Acceptable" category like this image. I'd rate your work as 7/10 but that's my personal opinion on it.

Good luck with your service OP ?

*This is in no way sales trashing, I was asked to rate the GFX by the OP himself.

Throw some of your work together onto a portfolio site. Would be loads better for customers. Other than that, not bad, and GLWS.

Thanks for all the positive feedback guys!
