Avoid dealing with this idiot

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1823971>

So basically i sold him UK agc for pp
but my pp got limited so i refunded his payments

He initially payed 95% pp and received all of it back but only refunded 70% in btc
he took over 10 days to respond to my messages and kept delaying stuff
by talking shit in pm's

Now hes claiming i sell carded agc's

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5443213>

He says

If amazon were to remove fraudulent cards they would have closed his account and he would have got an email from them stating the reason

They wouldn't just remove his balance without any explanation.

He is clearly lying and he hasn't shown any proof either.

The agc i sold him were physical cards bought directly from amazon

You use stealth paypals accounts.<https://s9.postimg.org/o1b5vl20f/Untitled.jpg>

So your pp got limited.You refunded my payments, even if I didn't ask that, but I paid you back via BTC.What's the problem? 70% is a fair price agc-btc.

This dumb kid is trying now to permanent limit my pp account

You are immature as hell.

And the fact that it are physical gift cards doesn't rule out they aren't carded.

And you also post 0 proof.

I hope you lost money, i sincerely do. I can't feel any pity for immature children like you.

You just proved you're a child yet again.

Ever heard of drop off addresses? And judging by the way you post, you seem like the kinda kid who sends carded agc to his home address

Drop of addresses can be traced and no one would go to the lengths of ordering physical gift cards instead of receiving them instantly via email

fuk off retard

Rezy - October 25, 2016, 4:58 am

This is true, he has not linked your account to that skype nor has he linked your account to the PP.

Indeed, it can be traced, but they won't track you down for that petty amount you bought those agc's for.

Your comment doesn't rule out that the cards aren't carded.

Your behavior strongly indicates you're quite guilty. Regarding your flaming to everyone who disagrees with you. That, for me, seems a thing only guilty 12 year old children do.

We are all siding with him because it is the most reasonable side of the story.

You make shit up and try to get his paypal limited.

On top of that, you're spamming like the 12 year old butthurt kid you are.

Give us 1 reason why anyone should believe any word you type?
