Thread: Why are many cosplayers fans unattractive?

Bjorn - October 25, 2016, 3:50 am

Not to be totally rude - and I DON'T want to offend anyone.

But I have a couple of friends that watch anime and goes to cosplay events - and for what I can conclude, from those events-pictures is, that the average cosplayer does not look very good IRL . Why?

They're really good at dressing up, and look authentic, and it seems like they're having a great time. But when I look at the persons Facebook profiles, because they're tagged in the pictures - most of them are shockingly ugly - and even some of them does have manga as their profile-picture- and maybe 1 or 2 old pictures from like 2011..

I went into many accounts, and i could conclude than all of them, without any deviation, that they looked terrible, overweight or tired.

I know some of you guys will be outraged about my question - but try to answer my question in a sober way - i'm not trying to conclude anything, im just curious.

- Thanks.

Deany - October 25, 2016, 3:51 am

because most are westerners trying to cosplay as JAPANESE people

Leave the cosplay to Japanese people, seriously. Like 1% of Westerners who cosplay pull it off, and that's a very small percentage. And yes, I pulled that percentage out of my ass.

Not exactly that answer i was looking for - i'm talking about the guys behind this cosplay's masks n' shit. Why do mostly ugly people (im talking from the western countries) fall for cosplay and manga?

All cosplayers I have seen i Denmark ex. are ugly IRL..

Jaymock - October 25, 2016, 4:09 am

Because most people related to gaming/cosplay aren't the type of ppl that engage a lot in social activities, and there's a reason for that. Most of them just don't look that appealing as people that work with people on a daily base.

Black Hole - October 25, 2016, 12:08 pm

I guess cosplayers in FL are just better looking.

I mean, in the grand scale of things, a majority of people are just average looking. So, in pretty much any realm of interest (except maybe modeling), the crowd will more than likely have more average/ugly looking people than attractive ones. Same thing could be said for just about any area of interest, like hockey....or airplane pilots.

Hellblazer? - October 25, 2016, 12:50 pm

Why are you stalking people's facebook pages?

Sounds like an accurate representation of Japanese. And it seems like Florida isn't getting a lot of the Asian gene pool.

This, mainly the Asians can cosplay good. When Westerners try to cosplay it looks like a fat man wearing a swimsuit.

A little far fetched but maybe a lot of them (not all) can be socially awkward. Leading them to not want to look their best based off of society's terms. Idk just a far fetched guess. I don't really fw cos play or anything.

It's not for everyone. Personally there's only 2 ends to the spectrum. Either you're a shut-in otaku or you hate/dislike anime. Okay maybe that was too extreme.

I mean, that's a generalization honestly.

But I see that a lot when it comes to people's opinions regarding Anime.

There are a few okay ones though, just really picky about them.

Wow you're one of these guys? Take pics with every girl cosplay then tell everyone how much of a pimp you are.

What else do you do at an anime convention? Besides there were probably thousands of other cosplayers depending on the convention.

Yeah man, I'm a total g. Show up to ANIME conventions, I'm a bad dude.

No, I have photos with tons of other cosplayers, male, female, groups. I just picked the good looking ones in relation to this thread.

skelly76 - October 25, 2016, 6:14 pm

I guess we can conclude people who watch anime are ugly. /thread

Lone - October 26, 2016, 12:29 am

Most of the overweight ones are probably due to them just sitting and watching anime in all their free time and eating more than they should. Not a healthy lifestyle

BR?ND?N - October 26, 2016, 1:13 am

Look at the general American fan base for anime.

Fat nerdy white kids who retreat to anime because their real lives suck. I know it sounds sad, but anime is an amazing escape from life's problems.

Look at Asian cosplayers. COMPLETELY DIFFERENT. Hot or average every day people. Because it's two different viewer bases man.

Geass - October 26, 2016, 1:31 am when you say "ugly" you mean the total attire with costume or in normal?

if you talking for the first probably because they amateurs at cosplaying i guess xD btw i never cosplayed lol.

Fistsworn - October 26, 2016, 2:08 am

Well "Cosplay" is already your answer.... Most cosplayer and Anime followers are Nerds that spend there time between studying ggetting good grades and Anime, no time for pics or dressing up good :p That's the most common reason, the Event are just an escape to have some fun away from text books and there are there having fun.

While I could see you're shocked beeing exposed to Giada Robbin and Jessica Nigri and such, they are just Hoe's prettending because theyknew/known that that was just a simple and quick way to be famous havong like billions of nerds that follow your YT/FB social media etc... But yes the average cosplayer is a nerd.. surprised?

Also no offence, I personally don't ccosplay, watch lot of anime's though, and all the people I meet at events are nice people(even if ugly :p) and I ain't a show to watch either. So we're kinda all on the same boat.

biscuit deluxe - October 26, 2016, 2:12 am yeah I don't know why people think jessica nigri is hot

Gabe2901 - October 26, 2016, 3:54 pm

That is a very good question my friend

Uiqueblhats - October 26, 2016, 6:53 pm

First you must have had an experience to generalize that cosplay actors are ugly as fuck.... Maybe you tried on a cosplay girl and she responded positively and when you found out in real life she was not as par to your standards i guess..... And real models don't do cosplays..... Ever saw Jeff Seid do a cosplay..... Its done for fun by normal people you just don't find normal people attractive m8

Western cosplayers are really bad. Now we got feminism trying to promote "you're body is beautiful" even when it's not.

If you're going to dress up and show off you better be open to judgment. If you don't want that type of criticism stay home with your shitty cosplay.

Str4ng3r - November 4, 2016, 4:32 am

Tbo, the aaverage person isnt a hottie... If you see it otherwise then you probably has a broad sense of what is attractive.

Being a nerd has nothing to do with how one looks. That is a pure stereotype. I'm married to a VERY HOT nerd that loves anime. You wouldn't know she was a nerd until she opened her mouth to speak and/or she sees something and geeks out, lol!

I'm starting to think the average joe dishes out the 'nerd' label based on how one looks as opposed to one's academic performance and the love of boring school stuff.

Chips Ahoy McCoy - November 4, 2016, 5:03 am

Are they really though? Most are either average/attractive with a smaller number being unattractive imo. You probably think the unattractive ones are a bigger number because they're a vocal minority.
