Thread: [\[Release-ish\] Working on a menu/tool program, any feedback is appreciated.](#)

UnderDog - October 30, 2016, 7:40 am

So I'm back on the forums under (puns :-D) a new account and I haven't been coding in a long time either. I have been working on one program passively and thought before I work any more, what suggestions/hate/demands are. So far its simple (much to be fixed, such as render issues) but it is fairly stable.

What it is:

Tool menu which is easily available by sliding down the right side of the screen with the mouse.

What it does:

So far it is practically useless but can perform CMD commands and contains an optionally encrypted memo.

How to use it:

When it has been started, a white bar (for debug purposes) will appear, slide the cursor from top-right corner to bottom-right fairly quick (too slow/quick may not trigger it) and after that, pretty straight forward.

Other stuff to know:

I am only posting this here to see if anyone is interested in a fully stable version with added features in the future. The product will be 100% free with optional ads (maybe). If no one likes it, that's fine, let me know. Want something added, make sure to explain it.

I didn't realise this until the very end of editing this post and scanning it. Its 3/56. No idea why but if you really don't trust it don't download it. Idk if it works in sandbox, you can try though. If someone wants to run in on a VM and vouch, that would be appreciated. ?

EDIT2: drive[WARNING POSSIBLY INFECTED]google.com/open?id=0B3dPkVedFxrZTGRIMEIXcERBSFk. Just in case you get error
"too much traffic". try not to share hack-tool packs over 1GB. Dropbox doesnt let you do anything, even if it was 2 years ago.

Actually looks pretty awesome OP. Keep working on it - maybe add in some widget functions like BTC price, maybe even add in some qtox or another chat platform.

Please add in a coffee command so you can click it and it will present you in CMD with an ascii coffee cup. Every great program needs ascii art.
