I don't have time to play this game anymore, taking offers. Also has bglowes + d defenders + slayer helmet and fcape. Buyer gets all information what I have.

Accepting BTC & AGC and trades.

Ice Poseidon - October 31, 2016, 9:23 am

Just a heads up, runescape accounts can always be recovered by the original owner.

Nobody's really intrested because of the fact that you purchased the account off of somebody (or at least you said that) meaning that if the account gets recovered you can just blame it on the original owner.

00god - November 7, 2016, 10:36 am

I don't think you are going to sell this buddy based on the fact that it has had 2 owners, I'll bid $25 dollars I guess.

Sure thing when one member offered me $500 but he got banned before we could finish the deal so yeah, I'm not going to sell this.

E: Even the bank is more than $25, so yeah good offer.

Lacrosse - November 7, 2016, 11:04 am

Pretty sexy account.

Would you be willing to sell just the bandos?

?Businessman™ - November 7, 2016, 11:57 am

Completely never thought about the inventory, was just thinking about the account in general.
Anybody who is willing to pay $500 for an account that has had 2 previous owners, and 2 chances of it being reversed is stupid.

Either way, good luck selling it, I'm also interested in purchasing the inventory if you could PM the price?

I mean if that user was banned surely he did something he shouldn't have done? like scamming perhaps? no one gets banned randomly...

Though If I'm truly honest for that account to have the stats and have 2 owners, taking into account the $40 worth of items supposedly (unless the prices dropped), you're looking at reasonable priced $140-$200.. no one would pay $500 to then have the highest of possibility it being recovered.. the trust for one user to the likely hood of how easy the account is to recover is not worth it at all, better off doing commission staking with it.

He didn't scam, he was a group leader lol.

And I don't care about your opinion. I have done the recovery test so do not post on my thread anymore, thanks.
