Thread: Self banned user shows as "Guest" on tracking tab

Patzan - November 1, 2016, 6:22 am

From "Sent Items" tab.

And this is from the tracking tab.

Are you sure about that? Seems normal to me when I tested.

Hmn, this is strange, you have to message a person and then have them self-ban themselves afterwards to replicate this. You cannot pm someone who has been self-banned.

Same. I have around 200 messages with Gary. They are all fine.

Edit: OP it's shows

That's where I took my screenshot, click on the name "Guest", what happens?

Also do you have him/her on your buddy list?

He'll most likely just get pulled to a No Permissions page or not be able to at all.

no

That doesn't answer my question, what happens when you try and click on the name "Guest".

I'm going to make the assumption that's just how myBB works.

When the account isn't banned anymore it should display their username again.
