Thread: [\[Unofficial\] OP Honeypot #2 Catching pedos](#)

ze-slade - November 1, 2016, 2:36 pm

This will be a spinoff of the older operation honeypot thread This time there will be zero ratting, ratting is illegal considering we don't have their consent. This will be as white hat as we can get it so what we will do is just make them think we're under 17 preferably, get enough evidence built up against the person, dox them and then tip off the correct authorities.

Roles: Organizer, doxer, ewhore(not really ewhoring as it is another word that I cannot say without getting a warning level.), notifier(the person who tips off the correct authorities, Other(please explain in your application).

No, we don't exploit them for cash, we get enough evidence, dox them and tip of the correct authorities. Right now we have 2 people who we need to dox and then tip off, we have enough evidence on 2 people already.

I can report em after i take cash from them, if that is cool? Haha

RainSpider3000 - November 7, 2016, 2:28 pm

I don't think they can get in trouble unless you actually are underage, or they do get ahold of CP... For example, a 25 yo male acting like a 15 yo girl, and the pedo likes you... That isn't illegal, unless you actually would be underage. Source: google.com search for pedo honeypot, people try, but they only make the authorities watch those users more closely.

I would think it's illegal if the pedo sends a dick pic to one of the SE's acting as a 15 year old girl... I'm pretty sure that's enough proof to at least get him on a child predator list.

Actual they can...

It's just like when offers pretend to be prostitutes or sell drugs. And then they arrest the "John" for saying they want a blow job for $40 or whatever. Also arrest the drug addict because they CAME looking for the drugs. As long as there is no entrapment (FIRST CONTACT or ADDING) then its legit.

Do you not understand what a honeypot is?

You are doing what is called ACTIVE SOLICITATION, whereas an actual honeypot is passive.

You are triggering pedophilic desires in people who may have turned themselves off to it previously. This is a ridiculous waste of time, and there is literally no way you can get them to break the law without breaking the law yourself.

What will you get them to do that will give police probable cause?

There's plenty of evidence you can gather to give police a probable cause.

You do realize, that you can be arrested or interrogated for just mouthing or texting the words that your intentions are to be with a little girl/boy.

In that regards, providing proof is easy. For instance, if you state saying something along the lines of "Oh I am only 14, is that okay." and they verbally agree. That's probable cause.

Untrue. In every state I could find just now, the law regarding intention to have sex with a minor is only actionable if it's against an ACTUAL child or a law enforcement entity. You are not a law enforcement entity.

Further, stating a desire to have sex with a non-specific child cannot be illegal. You saying "is that okay" and them giving a reply is not evidence of anything. You're going on a witch hunt here.

Think about it this way: if it is illegal for them to accept your proposition for sex as a fake child, why is it ok for you to fulfill their fantasies online by pretending to be a child? Further, why are you picking "under 17"? The age of consent in he majority of US states is 16, and that is even the age for sexual performance in some states, like Kentucky.

Do you not understand what a honeypot is?(1)

Yes, but don't look that into the name just listen, the name was just from an old operation that eventually died out, the entire process they had was highly illegal so I decided "Hey I remember this, why don't I revamp it but make a second one where we try to be as legal as possible and not violate a single law." Of course, there are some gray areas with this operation but we tend to try and avoid those as much as we can.

You are doing what is called ACTIVE SOLICITATION, whereas an actual honeypot is passive.(2)

Uh, no. In no way we are asking a guy for sexual desires, etc.. , every single time the guy has posted a dick pic or other willingly. You may have gotten this mixed up because I used the term Ewhore as a substitute to the actual term so I don't get a warning level & thread removed.

You are triggering pedophilic desires in people who may have turned themselves off to it previously.

Actually, we're not, the team that deals with the pedos and talks to them actually goes to kid chat sites from what I've been told and pedophiles confront them in private messages, so what you're saying is by going to a little chat site we're triggering a pedo's past desires ?.

This is a ridiculous waste of time(sub1), and there is literally no way you can get them to break the law without breaking the law yourself.(sub2)(4)

I'm going to quickly break this into two parts.

This is a ridiculous waste of time(sub1)

Well, this might seem like a "ridiculous waste of time" to you, but to us at least we're trying to help. What can you say for yourself? Are you trying to get pedophiles off children's chat websites so that your future child if they happen to visit it without you knowing and get sexually exploited or rather some other kid has this happen to them? We're trying to prevent this from happening, I'm not sure about you but I wouldn't want to see my kid get sexually exploited on the off chance they visit one of these websites, I prefer that mid kid remains unscarred.

and there is literally no way you can get them to break the law without breaking the law yourself.
(sub2)

Well, there's the thing. It is a bit of a gray area, they are pretending to be little kids on a chat site with fake images, sure the kid in the picture if not given consent could have some legal repercussions on us and or the Ewhore

What will you get them to do that will give police probable cause?(4)

What will we get them to do? We aren't having them do anything, what they're doing is on them, they've done this on their own. If they ask if the Ewhore wants a dick pic or a pussy pic then it's up to the Ewhore, once again we aren't making them do anything, if they're asking if they want a pic of the genitalia the Ewhore I normally have them go for acting as >15 so they're under consent if I'm wrong in my understanding, if they say "yes", "sure", "it doesn't matter", etc.. It doesn't matter if they say sure send me the dick pic, the Ewhore is under the age of >15 and the pedophile knows that, the pedophile is in serious trouble if they send it because that's completely illegal even if they're the age of consent, just to be safe though the ewhore is normally >15 as I said.

In other words your going to bait pedophiles into doing something wrong. This is one of those things I see as unlawful especially when law enforcement does it, it's not fair to the person and it's not right for you to create your own situations and provoke someone into doing something stupid.

However it's just my opinion and many people will instantly support something like this without seeing it the other way. Goodluck.

I see your reasoning indeed... I guess it is more "preventative" persey, as in, catch them by using people who are aware they are dangerous, instead of using innocent, unknowing children to find out first

Read that, It explains what the ewhore(s) are doing, the ewhore(s) do not set them up at all. They come to the ewhore(s) directly and do pedophilic things, the ewhore's intention is not to make people seem like pedos when they're not, it is to wait until someone starts messaging them with pedophilic intentions. In the quote, there might be some extra information as I posted that directly for one person on this thread.
