What's the point of buying this if you can buy Amazon gc's for 70%?

ze-slade - November 3, 2016, 1:35 pm

Any proof you own these OP or are capable of shipping these?

You might want to include wether or not members will need a drop for these items,

I don't believe Amazon Buy4You's are allowed.

I have shitloads of AGCs. I don't want to trade them one by one, so I will use those to buy anyone a drone for btc. This way it is less hassle for everyone. Yes if you want to and have time, you can go buy AGC directly, and then buy a drone.

Answer my question.

Why a drone though? Why not just say, "i'll buy something from amazon that you want for 30% off"?

Or am i missing something here?

Seems sketchy,

Plenty of users use carded or cracked Amazons to do Buy4You services,

If ANY users are planning on purchasing anything here I'd recommend using a drop to receive it with.

You could just help yourself and modify the original post a little to make it clearer that you've got a large balance of AGC that you want to use up.

People will think you're going to refund or use stolen CC details etc to obtain these.

Lol, he can refund anything off Amazon. Wishlist or not, Amazon is refundable and you will end up getting linked and closed potentially. Amazon are savage and don't give two shits, if they link you to fraud, say goodbye to Amazon.

I have huge amazon balance, I want to exchange it to bitcoins in big sums without taking risk or much hassle.

I see most of the AGCs are 70%, so I am selling drones for 70% as well.

I see you are not the smartest user here, so i will explain it to you.

Let's say you want to buy a drone from amazon. You can buy direct from amazon for 100% price OR you can buy amazon gift cards from HF with 85-70% price and then buy the drone.

I already have huge amount of amazon balance, I want to exchange it for bitcoins. So instead of selling AGCs to users in small amounts for 70%, I just sell one item, to a trusted member from amazon for 70%.

It is less risky and less time consuming for me and for the buyer as well.

PM me if you want to buy a drone, if not please just pm me with your questions instead of LQ posting.

tbh he is right, idk what the hell you are on about also. If you even look around the forum for 1-2 minutes you'll find people sell AMAZON GIFT CARDS for around 70-80% of their face value (e.g. 100 for $80 BITCOINS) and hes just selling the balance for 70%..

You're clearly avoiding my point.

You don't need my vouch, nor do i want to vouch for you.

All I want, - and more in this thread- is to see a little proof on how you obtained those amazon gift cards.
