2073436 - November 3, 2016, 4:47 pm

I'm sure you will win this.

PayPal isn't THAT stupid, they will notice the other claims and see that he's exchanging BTC to PP or PP to BTC.

Good luck.

Shit son, maybe calling Paypal will help.

DamienVC - November 3, 2016, 4:51 pm

I'd prefer to hear the actual method from Cryptic before calling paypal and telling them that it was due to BTC->PP, dont even know whether its the same that all the other users said or not this fucking sucks. does he not have a bad trust scan in this case?

i hope that you get your money back. there's a chance that you win the case- but it's still shitty that anyone would even do this. GL OP

DamienVC - November 3, 2016, 5:40 pm

Alright cover story

Mark Boland aka usofunny aka the PP he used on the three disputes sent the money to this user:
<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2290287> (name BTC exchange on PP)
This dude forwarded the money to my PP

He got disputed, and he disputed the payments sent to my PP

Currently need to work on resolving his so that mine will be fixed in the meantime
