Thread: Shit that upsets me - users scamming money.

Now, I dont usually point fingers, but I find this kind of crazy.

This user called Ghost apparently is doing an "exit scam".

I've done some counting and I've estimated up to that he made: 11515$ dollars.

Here's a quote on a recent scam report where he was claimed to scam for 9.1K$. This was his response:

.....

What's your opinion about this?

And it ended up being worth over 10K apparently.

I am kind of aware how BTC->Paypal exchange works. I dont think these users will have any chance getting their money back. Sad.

Idk dude scamming will always be around so I wouldn't waste energy being upset over it.

Unless it happens to you, that could be an exception

Yup, it sucks. That's why Trust Scan can be your best friend in these situations.
