Also purchased his ebook and its perfect, going to use in the future too.

Cryptic is definitely the guy you would want to go with PayPal disputes, its legit like you have no loss throughout the process as its a guaranteed win/win situation.
His eBook includes a proper way to secure every single PP payment and then making sure they are won in case of a chargeback. Works for any type of accounts (verified/unverified) on PP.

Review is overall 10/10. Huge vouch for OP

I was scammed by Vinnie for $1,700. $700 of that was from WU, the other $1000 was through PayPal (1 $800 and 1 $200 payment). This legend right here recovered the $800 on his first try via a phone call. Took no longer than 3-4 minutes and I had to wait 2 days but was WORTH IT. If you're considering buying this, you have no reason to hesitate. If you feel like this is something you may need down the road, BOOKMARK this thread and refer here when you're scammed. Just be warned, you never know how long this'll be here for.

HUGE VOUCH, thanks for this recovery man. Hopefully we can do the other $200 when you get time :)

I reduced the price to $75 and have added PayPal as an option.

$100 was way too steep.

Enjoy

Jon Snow. - November 5, 2016, 5:00 pm

Vouch Copy for me please 6ix GOD.

I know this is the realest method out there though for real... If anyone does more than a couple transactions per week, legit buy this. In the long run it will end up solving thousands of dollars worth of disputes, so $100 is NOTHING.

TehDuh - November 5, 2016, 5:05 pm

Vouch for Cryptic™! He is using this method to help me and it's going great!

Not really unless its because of a dispute.

I've been using paypal for 7+ years with no issues. If you follow their policies you wont have an issue. All the people that complain here about their PP getting limited are always the ones that are violating their TOS. Their not old enough to use PayPal, or use fake PPs, etc.

Follow the rules and you wont have a problem.

I was on the phone with PayPal for him 2 days ago they sent a request to the back office to credit his account. Since it's a really large amount the process is different, and on top of that he received it as Friends/Family which made it much more complicated.

Anyways if you follow the method in my eBook it will show you how to prepare your transactions in such a way that PayPal will always reimburse you no matter what the case, even if the sender charges back via their bank or credit card.

No this isn't a charge back method lol.

This protects you from other people charging back or disputing a payment they sent you....

If you receive a payment from someone, my book tells you how to prepare it so that if they charge back / open a dispute / or even charge back via their CC / bank you will get to keep your money no matter what.

The book also tells you exactly what to do once the dispute/chargeback is open so you win.

It has a 100% win-rate, I also provide assistance if you need help.

This motherfucker.. let me tell you. I was scammed by Vinnie for $1,700. $700 of that was from WU, the other $1000 was through PayPal (1 $800 and 1 $200 payment). This legend right here recovered the $800 on his first try via a phone call. Took no longer than 3-4 minutes and I had to wait 2 days but was WORTH IT. If you're considering buying this, you have no reason to hesitate. If you feel like this is something you may need down the road, BOOKMARK this thread and refer here when you're scammed. Just be warned, you never know how long this'll be here for.

HUGE VOUCH, thanks for this recovery man. Hopefully we can do the other $200 when you get time :)

The dispute was for a virtual product?

I have several ways of winning various disputes as long as it meets certain requirements I have.

Does not matter if it was a virtual product or not.

If someone hires me to win their dispute I usually charge them a 10-20% fee depending on the amount of the dispute. In Mr.Peanuts case we agreed to him paying me 10% so ($80) for winning the dispute.

Lmao. Not possible there can only be one buyer one seller

Cryptic™ - January 30, 2017, 6:34 pm

Lol some cheap bastard decided to purchase the eBook via Paypal ($15) and then charge back as unauthorized right away.

I have removed the PayPal option from the purchase page, if you want to purchase via PayPal you need to PM me.

Bitcoin and Perfect money are still available via the autobuy.

This guy was an idiot and downloaded the eBook from his real IP so I've submitted all that information to PayPal which should let me win the dispute.

OP is currently in-class and will be posting a review later today.

Oh and to the guy on the previous page that said I didn't know jack-shit, and cited me the PayPal Terms and Conditions, (yes Api key I'm talking about you)

I stay true to my words, I can win any paypal dispute. If there are obstacles in the way I will either destroy them or circumvent them. lol. As they say, if there's a will, there's a way.

Hey Cryptic,

When people are making chargebacks they can choose different descriptions like "Item is incomplete and more", does your ebook explain for different scenarios? Or how is it built? Is it possible if you send me a TOC?

Thanks, let me know.

Thanks, let me know.eBook does not cover that in detail but I am more than happy to provide support if you get into a situation like that. Because of the way the method is constructed, it is very easy to deal with that.

You probably think that Cryptic asked me to post this to bump or whatever, understandable.

It works fine with Rocketr due to the way their system is designed.

No I am not creating another version of the eBook....which will also contain information about how to use this method with Rocketr and possibly any other similar autobuys

No. There is no way to have protection using Friends/Family...if you use that your just asking to be scammed.

When you don't pay fees what incentive does PayPal have to try and help you.
