Thread: Rather being in jail for 1 year or losing 500k?

Flexity - November 6, 2016, 4:33 pm

Title says it.

I would rather be in jail for 1 year, everything for the money ayy.

Mr.Peanut - November 6, 2016, 4:34 pm

If it's minimum security, yeah. If it's a legit prison fuck so. I wouldn't mind reading, and other activities for 1 year. Would be terrible but fuck (at this age, it's kinda worth it) then there's a part of me saying fuck no. I feel like i'd back out last minute lmao.

Kingspade - November 6, 2016, 4:34 pm

Fuck yeah for jail I've been their and don't give a fuck about going back.

ogRizah - November 6, 2016, 5:01 pm

I'd rather lose the money, jail is a terrible place. Losing the money would be fine with me because I could find another way to make some money back. Even being broke is better then rotting in a cell.

Stashyy - November 6, 2016, 5:02 pm

Tbh I would lose 500k.

Since I would be doing the samething to earn that 500k back and find the person who made me lose it.

1 year jail ofc , what an idiot question.

146918496 - November 6, 2016, 5:03 pm

Like, does this mean I have 500k when I get out?

Pluxo - November 6, 2016, 5:04 pm

I've been in jail before for 21 days, and I'd rather do 1 year than lose 500k.

Blasted - November 6, 2016, 5:04 pm

people HATE losing money which is why most will say jail.

personally 1 year doesn't sound too bad??

minimalist - November 6, 2016, 5:05 pm

I'd rather do 1 year, jails aren't as bad as prisons esp. where I live.

Mouse? - November 6, 2016, 5:05 pm

If only I had 500k to lose in the first place.

Tommy Chong- - November 6, 2016, 5:06 pm

I'd go to jail for that
Dutch prison is like a 4 star hotel

PennTest - November 6, 2016, 5:06 pm

Taking in consideration that the average salary for a family in the United States is $50,000 a year. Spending 1 year behind bars, with all the commodities, free food, free everything basically (even gym). Then from a financial stand point this is a heck of a deal and of course I would take it without any doubts.

ZuGgY - November 6, 2016, 5:06 pm

Depends. Would the prison sentence go on my private record? Honestly, I feel like that would hinder me being able to get future jobs, especially good ones that I would seek.

I honestly would probably loose the $500K, and earn it back over time, although it definitely would not be good at all. I'd maybe end up homeless :(

Human - November 6, 2016, 5:08 pm

So if i never had 500k, and I didnt lose it doesnt it mean i have it?
I would go to jail

Good point.

Pluxo - November 6, 2016, 5:09 pm

Also a factor that I didn't add was that it depends on your location. If you're in a LA County Jail for a year, it could be worse.

No Heart - November 6, 2016, 5:43 pm

I would go to jail most likely.

Alprazolam? - November 6, 2016, 5:44 pm

If I did Jail right not I would survive for a year lol, its not as bad as others make it seem.

Null - November 6, 2016, 5:45 pm

Jail for one year without a doubt.

NoObInT387 - November 6, 2016, 5:48 pm

I was in county jail for two years... I'd def choose jail over losing 500k

Jonath198 - November 6, 2016, 5:51 pm

I would rather go to jail because I could never recover from losing 500k. Obvious choice.

Coton Pker - November 6, 2016, 5:53 pm

there needs to be more context here...

how much do I hypothetically have, before losing 500k? and is it liquid assets, or is it large materials like houses/buildings.?

a year in a jail isn't really that bad, but if I had millions and it was 500k to stay outta jail, I'd just give up the money.

Mewtwo - November 6, 2016, 6:36 pm

I rather go to jail. 500k is alot of money lol.

Industry - November 6, 2016, 6:38 pm

What if I decide to stay in Jail for 1 year, would I receive a cheque for 500k? If so, sign me up! I will get in shape fast, learn to make prison shanks, and get paid a cold hard 500k all the same time. Now that's what I'm talking about!

Why does your financial status have to change? All things being equal, could you weather a financial setback of 500k in your current state? I believe that was the question. Most people don't bounce back from that easily which is meant to be the point of the exercise.

The choice is between losing 500k and going to jail. Nowhere does it say you can receive 500k from going to jail lmao.

test - November 6, 2016, 7:00 pm

500k is a shit load of money. You would spend years paying that off. I would probably rather go to jail, but some minimum/medium security one. Fuck maximum security that would suck.

in my current state.. sure why not.

I have mayb 6k to my name total.. so I could stand to lose 500k no problem.

the debt would just be debt, it'd never get paid.

would rather be 494k in debt with nothing than be in jail for a year personally.

Well, that's brave of you. That much debt would kill all my prospects and end my will to live tbh.

Cute - November 6, 2016, 7:27 pm

Yea, 500k is a lot of cash, But I'd get murdered in jail.. I'll just take the L on this one and lose the 500k.

Energy Wizard - November 6, 2016, 7:30 pm

$500,000? That's my entire earnings here on HF!

I'd rather do the jail time, I better get to pick a crime though.

Flexity - November 8, 2016, 11:39 am

Getting this up as all those comments are interesting tbh. ?

Money4life - November 8, 2016, 12:00 pm

Easy jail, the jails in my country is like an fucking hotel.

Got TV

Ps3

Computers etc

Lion - November 8, 2016, 12:11 pm

You risk becoming emotionally broken in jail.

Also risk a larger anus if you give off a weak aura.

Ultras - November 8, 2016, 12:15 pm

Jail for a year easily. Jails around here are like cheap hotels anyways lol.

baka~ - November 8, 2016, 12:18 pm

I'd rather lose 500k than go to jail, mostly because of the tabu of going to jail, it would be so much harder to find a job and so on if they find out that you have been to jail - and also because I'm clumsy as fuck and would be scared to drop the soap.

ProfessorSpace - November 8, 2016, 12:22 pm

Honestly really depends, Which country are we talking about, What is the crime you committed, Is there any cons about taking the money besides going to jail. All of this factors in because if i take the money but it happens to be drug money stolen from the Mexican Cartel then FUCK no id rather live 5 years in prison then go across that but if i went to prison on a plea deal for child molestation then id rather take the money. Can we have a little more background on both subjects?

7amous - November 8, 2016, 12:34 pm

Jail any day, my bro has been in for 12 years so far. Repeating offender he's not a murderer or some Shit. I'd join him and keep the 500k.

Regulus - November 8, 2016, 12:35 pm

I live in Sweden so prisons here aren't so bad.

I'd do it without a doubt lol.

ComponY - November 8, 2016, 12:36 pm

Jail for a year. When I get out, I still have 5k, and a year gives me time to get ripped.

An eye for an eye I suppose. Or at least an eye for a beef bayonet up the brown eye... ?

Prophett - November 8, 2016, 12:50 pm

I'd go to jail for a year. Do I get the 500k once I'm out?

Calador - November 8, 2016, 1:02 pm

Prison easily!!!! Fuck losing that money

Mr. Giftcard - November 8, 2016, 1:04 pm

Lose $500k, $500k isnt worth a year of my life.

Muggsy - November 8, 2016, 1:22 pm

of course i would do that time. fuck you mean man.

SIM-403479 - November 8, 2016, 1:31 pm
