Thread: How to sell PaxHosting on Webhostingtalk?

Mons - November 7, 2016, 2:52 am

Let me know.

Your help is appreciated.

You are already getting rid of your host and planning on selling it?

Not even the slightest.

I'm wanting to sell on other forums as well.

What's so hard on that?

Just make a account. Read the guidelines. Foloow their rules. You need to make 10 posts then you can post in their marketplace.

Sticky at WHT is $200/week. Premium membership 600$/m or something around that.

I believe there's a rule that you have to have a certain amount of posts before posting an ad

Not wanting to post an ad but a sales thread.

And already got 10 posts.

Follow the rules and it won't get removed. lol

Once they remove a thread you should receive a email that it has been deleted and you been warned. It should state the reason why and you should be able to contact their support to resolve it.
