A?.ntichrist - November 9, 2016, 4:42 am

Am I missing something? As far as I'm aware demonoid has been open for registration since 2015.
Also, you don't need an account to download the torrents (you only need an account if you want to upload torrents).
Logic?

Nope, registration is closed, they only had it open when they reopened.
But you are right you only need an account to upload.

BTW you avoiding my question OP, I take it I was correct about you handing out invites to a dead torrent site. Continue on then.
