Proportions and structure look extremely awkward in some areas (I know it's anime but still). The fingers have no knuckles which make them look like sausages, the elliptical lines over the eyes are different from each other, the six packs aren't equilateral to each other which just looks simply wrong, and I'm just overall questioning the positions of the upper and lower positions of the muscles.

Going to make my account based off this. I want to watch one piece I did as a kid but broke off.
Heres my plan Watch one piece from ep 1 while I post on hf
