Thread: Addmefast Points Method

God - November 13, 2016, 2:06 pm

Hello,

I have a simple addmefast points method which all users can use. Some of you may be interested, others not. It involves some time to setup (10 minutes if you have never used the tool before) but can give alot of points in the long-term. I have got over 1500 points in the past day. It's nothing complex, and not trying to claim this is some sort of 'premium method'.

PM me or leave a reply here and I'll get back to you.

No problem dude, you're the only one who's commented back saying something about it.

Just went from 900 points to 2200 in 40 minutes. 90% success rate so far.

DontWorryBeHappy - November 15, 2016, 8:56 am can AMF get you banned on youtube or suspended from monetizing?

I have never had any problems with addmefast for YouTube. I don't use it for monetizing my content so I wouldn't know but I guess it depends on how much subs you're getting a day. If you get 0 for 2 months and suddenly YT sees 50 in less than an hour then I guess you will either have them removed / or be suspended.

so AMF does subs and views?

i didn't know that

and i know yt can be touchy with some stuff so i didn't know if AMF gets an account banned or monetizing suspended
