Thread: follow/unfollow limit per hour/day

Hicupish - November 14, 2016, 1:54 am

Does anyone know the max amount each hour or day?

Mcmisty - November 14, 2016, 4:17 am

I don't know the follow limit, but unfollowing is unlimited.

I just unfollowed 700 people

TimothyTD - November 14, 2016, 4:17 am

Follow limit is also unlimited.

It depends on the age of the account

Please show proof of your unlimited claims

Make sure you warm up the account and dont make it follow all day long.

It is true, first month of owning my account I could only unfollow and follow 200 people a day

The Kraken - November 14, 2016, 4:39 am

There isn't really a maximum I think, first day of when I started I got freezed too. Couldn't follow people for 2-3 days.

Hicupish - November 15, 2016, 1:41 am

Cheers for the comments guys, anyone know an average number then?

Yandere - November 15, 2016, 1:43 am

I'm able to follow about 200 or so per hour. Total I can follow about 1k per day and un-follow around the same rate as well

Warming up account is the most essential on the accounts.

I've never gotten banned growing any accounts, be it business or personal accounts.

This is what I normally do for new accounts.

Also I DO NOT recommend you to unfollow and follow at the same time, it's highly fishy and I know few people that have been banned. It might be a factor but I may be wrong.

Day 1-3: 80 - 120 Follows

Day 4-7: 120 - 180 Follows

Day 8-14: 240 - 300 Follows

Day 15-20: 300 - 360 Follows

Day 20-36: Unfollow when reached 7,500 following. (300 - 400 unfollow)

Day 37 - 48: 360 - 420 Follows.

Slow increment is the key. Don't be greedy, once they're warmed up it's basically on auto with the same amount.

I DON'T recommend you to go above 700 following or unfollow at any point as well. No one has time IRL to follow more than 700 a day. #JUSTSAYING
