Yep, but not everyone can get an EDU email seeing how people sell them for $2.50ish, so if people are lazy/cheap I figured I'd give away it. Also, according to the few people who appraised it this can go for $1-$2 depending on the buyer.

Been a member of 5 years with no history of bans or any controversies on HF. I consider that to be a decent achievement for me.

Count me in as well please. Good luck to all participants.

ze-slade - November 16, 2016, 7:10 am

Well sorta like the user above me, I've been on HF for 2 years or so now and I've only had one warning no bans or anything else. I just hit 500 rep recently if that is an achievement? I earned over $350 on my spreading method when I sold it on here, I have lots of achievements on here, I guess.
