Thread: Getting great interest on my Bitcoin! Great Profits! :\)

Simplelife - November 16, 2016, 3:51 pm

Hey guys so recently I have been looking around at great places to invest my Bitcoin either in a project or something. I figured it was better than just letting them sit in my wallet aha. I found this site that is like a Bitcoin investment wallet just like a savings account. I currently have 0.2287BTC sitting in it and the returns are great! At the time of depositing BTC was 1BTC=698$ and now it's 1BTC=738$! So already my returns are great.

Pretty much how the site works is you deposit money into it and it gives you hourly, daily, and weekly interest rates (what your expected to get every hour, day, week) with 3.3% daily interest! So after depositing my 0.2287BTC today in just about 4-5 hours I have already made this:

The current balance is my interest rate from the 4-5 hours! and you can literally watch it go up every second!

For those of you that know right now my 0.2287BTC is about 170$USD and every week just for leaving it in there I get almost 40$USD! That's almost double my initial investment every month! I think this is much better than just leaving my BTC in my wallet and I thought it would be a nice thing to share :) If you guys wanna know the site just give me a PM! Look around guys there is great things to invest in or put your BTC in don't just let them sit in your wallet!

HAHAHA that's fucking hilarious. But seriously what's the site dude, let's check it out.

Do you know how long the site has been running for?

ewakr - November 16, 2016, 4:42 pm

What is this site so I can check it out?

.Dmo - November 16, 2016, 4:54 pm

How can they afford to pay you 3.3% everyday? That seems a bit high..

Suspicion - November 16, 2016, 4:56 pm

Sounds like those HYIP scams which end up running away with your money after a few months.

ChaosComputerDude - November 16, 2016, 4:57 pm

yeah , another coince... thats what the world needed

gl with your ponzi , pull out before it collapses

if you want a reliable site with reasonable output , feel free to pm me

Bull™ - November 16, 2016, 5:42 pm

I dont think HYIPS isd allowed in this Board. So get the fuck outta here.

ohxerxe - November 16, 2016, 5:44 pm

RIP Bitcoin. I do not recommend leaving it in there. Dont even know the site you are talking about but no way anyone can afford to give people a 3.3% daily interest. IT is to good to be true man.

Maybe they just make more. Either way for now it's great interest and I love it but I will also make sure to not leave a big amount in there. Thank you I don't know too much about these things but this seemed great! So I thought I would share it :)

No one can guarantee a 3.3% daily return. If they were actually able to make more than 3.3% consistently every day, then they would definitely not need your money to use; they would just use their own.

But even on their website there is a section called "payment proof" and everytime someone cashes their interest or investment out that transaction is automatically updated and displayed for everyone to see. I tested it myself with 5$ and it went on the payment proof page in 1 second! You can even click on the Blockchain transaction ID and it takes you right to the transaction and even says the name of the person who cashed it out! So it seems a little more believable in my eyes :) I can PM you the site and you can check it out for yourself if you want :)

Eventually they will stop paying out. I believe you in that they may payout now, but I'd just be very careful with it if I were you. Anyways, good luck.

This. How it works is they have a large investment, and they advertise their site around as a way to make effortless money. After awhile, tons of people start to invest small amounts into it. After awhile of that, once the website begins to almost loose all their investments, they exit scam; being as at this point, people trust the source, and are investing thousands upon thousands ?

@lotto got me with one of these awhile back, rip 2.6 btc.
