Thread: Jarvis_ai Imprsonating Myself and Cryptic \(uid=3141776\)

Armada - November 17, 2016, 6:46 am

Lets start the drama with this thread

Initially I was accused of taking money for a job I never once would agree to do from the start.

In the thread it becomes very apparent that I was in fact not the person responsible.

(Nov 16, 2016 04:13 AM)1akaidummy Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Ok the reason I didn't answer yet was because i'm talking with another member who was helping me with this and asked me to wait till they got back to me.

I do want to say that no the person who scammed me is not the real armada (you) but someone who is using your profile and good name to scam people, he has two emails set up using your name and profile to scam first one is Infiltrator@live.com, and the other one is armadahacks@protonmail.com. He also has a skype name set up to look like you that username is "live:cancelling" and now he is trying to pose as another high member cryptic this is the email he is using for that one crypticvpn@protonmail.com.

I was told it was Jarvis_ai who was doing this hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3141776 there is his link to profile, if it is him something needs to be done about his fraud and basically trying to destroy good members reps by doing this. I do have that info on his PP name and email for it if you still want it.

This is what he did he got the payment and then did a fake refund to try to fool me in to thinking PP did it on it's own and was then asking me to resend payment. He sent me a screen shot of the official pp refund if he was gonna refund the money and everything, I have no records of a refund in my PP so that is being dealt with now.

I have all the emails and info saved from both fake "armadas" I would prefer to give you the PP info to you in a PM because this info does contain the personal info but I don't know how many posts you need to start PMing, I can e-mail it to you if you want also this guy needs to be stopped and banned from doing this.

Both Cryptic and Myself confirm these are NOT our addresses, neither of us use protonmail and this pathetic waste of oxygen even made a damn inspect element gif to convince people of this type of shit.

I know for a fact that is not cryptics email.

Although I have not seen similiar for myself, but it becomes VERY clear.

Jarvis_ai

Is in fact blackhat.l33t

And utilizing falsified information from myself and Cryptic™ to fucking scam.

Thanks for the heads up, I didn't have time to read through the replies on that other thread lol

Cryptic™ - November 17, 2016, 6:51 am

Yeah lol I got tipped off about this yesterday.

I never conduct deals over Skype, I always do it via PM.

And second of all. The CrypticVPN administration panel isn't even called that.

And third of all I don't use protonmail I use @crypticvpn.com emails for everything related to that business.

Last but not least I haven't had less than 1K PMs in my inbox in months lol.

I'm currently sitting at close to 5.1K

TLDR: ALWAYS CONFIRM VIA PM TO SEE IF THE PERSON YOU ARE TALKING TO IS ACTUALLY THE ONE ON SKYPE

Another thing that the screenshot doesn't have is the Ub3r support subforum. Cryptic is a ub3r and it should definitely have that in the Rules, Announcements & Feedback forum.

And this is why you should always PM the member you're dealing with on here first or use /verifysecret.php.

Hopefully he hasn't scammed too many.

It sucks that people feel the need to scam others on here.

Armada - November 19, 2016, 7:45 am

Another known ID this idiots using it seems.

Do NOT deal with live:cancelling

G??i?? - November 20, 2016, 7:27 am its really sad. i am very late to read about it. i don't know why people targeting here high rep member.

Two options, impersonate someone who has a reputation, someone people are likely to trust, a known member of the community OR some random person with none of that? Which one would you pick..?

I'm sure you could have worked that out.
