Thread: About my scam report everything is explained in this thread

Black Shadow - November 17, 2016, 11:55 pm

I have decided to make this thread to clear my name as to many of you dont know the full facts.

Also I have a few jealous members that don't like me so they are making matters worse than they are.

One member even decided to make a thread about this matter but Omni closed his account when he seen the thread here

I have been a member here for 8 years and would never scam anyone!

Also because some gullible members listen to others bullshit without knowing the full facts start hating on me

SO BEFORE YOU EVER COMMENT KNOW THE FULL FACTS ON THE MATTER FIRST!

I can see the haters coming to this thread to carry on their bullshit but just listen to what I have to say...this is the truth

SCAM REPORT

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5428427>

The scam report for $250 "not resolved" and is staying that way as I am not refunding it!

Here is whats happened.....

The bogus scam report on me the member purchased my GH / BH method then after 2 hours demanded a refund, I wouldn't give him it so he opened a scam report.

He stated that the method I sold him was public and fraudulent

Here is my reply to this.....

The method was my own that I made and he needed my contacts to use it so how could it be public?

Plus there was information in it that no one would even think ? of as I discovered it myself .

The member who made the thread is not so squeaky clean himself so why should you trust what he says?

Look at some of his reps he has been given.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

But also remember this, reps against members can be lies so dont take at face value

Here is what the bullshitters will come to the thread and say and my answer to it

1. I was accused of the method being fraud.

My reply to this....

No it was not fraud it was GH / BH more GH I would say the claim was made just to blacken my name and to add to the refund bullshit.

Also the screenshot is a fake you do not need stealth accounts so dont listen to him

2. I have been told by 1 member he has the ebook he got it from another member ?

My reply to this....

I sold this method to 3 members only so how the fuck has he got it????

The other 2 members would not disclose it so that just leaves his imagination

Cameron - November 18, 2016, 12:04 am

I didn't even read it but mate you're a dead set fuckwit.

ryan? - November 18, 2016, 12:04 am

I feel like anytime you NEED to have stealth accounts it's pretty much BH. Even then, are you allowed to sell anything involving BH on-site? That's one of the arguments he's making that you didn't really cover.

Honestly, including some proof would help your case more than anything as his thread literally has pictures upon pictures of what he's saying between you two, but yours is just saying what you think.

like this sobbing about how innocent you are. You always refer to your reputation stating how much of a perfect member you are but you fail to acknowledge the details on the disputes.

You was selling a method which is NOT allowed here on HF. The method you was selling is blatant scamming and fraud and you constantly use your high reputation as an attempt to bypass site policies.

You are a complete fucking idiot. You was selling a method which you stated was not illegal yet when the member bought the method he asked for an immediate refund because he did not want to participate in these type of fraudulent and scamming activities. You advertised your method as greyhat, so he had every right to ask for a refund. The dispute has been open for over 1 month now and you refuse to acknowledge any questions in regards of the dispute, instead you constantly post bullshit nobody cares about. The member who you also sold a copy too said it was extremely blackhat, so you are once again lying like a little repulsive prick you are.

Soon as someone mentioned the word fraud on your thread you junk it. You have junked and re-opened the same fraudulent sales thread roughly around 8 times now, how can you continue to lie?

the story.

I just needed some cash that day I wish I had never sold him it now.

Community doesnt need to know your side, if theres a dispute against you, use that thread and try to resolve it.

I'm not taking either side but this is pretty immature thing to do for someone who supposedly is old enough to realize you cant sort shit by going in public. You dont need others to fight for you lol, if you believe you're right, then believe so and dont give a fuck. If you scammed someone then you're a scammer and this thread wont change nothing. Its that simple, no need for yet another drama.

I was expecting him to. Doesn't really bother me.

The OP is a retard though, it's truly hilarious. He tells us to believe him even though he can't provide proof, but they people open scam reports & provide proof against him & he just says it's all lies ?

OP is like 72 years old dude

On top of that he has changed his story multiple times. To begin with he posted on the dispute saying he'll pay back OP. Now in this thread he posted saying he has no intention of paying him back, lies after lies... he's a fucking scammer.

Yep I know exactly how you feel. I've been asking him this same question for well over 1 month now. He refuses to answer it even though it's the question which could potentially fix the dispute which is against him.

He has lied to much he cannot give an answer because once again someone will call him out on his bullshit.

lol if someone doesn't, can't or won't answer a question that would prove his innocence, then that person is not innocent at all

If he stopped for a moment to re-think his moves he'd probably come up with better solution than this. Changing story from time to time is most likely a sign of someone not knowing what they stand for, thus this drama happens every now and then. There are many bullshit reports in DD section, people end up looking like scammers when in reality its the other way around, whole system is rigged as fuck and you can smell bullshit from miles away. Which is why every individual fights his battle, if its true he scammed larger amount and hes in complete wrong then this thread will destroy him even more, if its the other way around then all people posting here reading this will think hes a scammer, so hes doing both things wrong + supposedly scamming (I really cba reading any scam report). I'm reading and commenting this from a pov of someone whos here for the first time, I simply do not see how this thread can benefit ANYONE.

That's what we've been saying all along. He is guilty because if he was innocent he would be trying to prove it.

Rather than creating threads which cause drama, and him denying half of the problems which exist.

Such as his gambling addiction (Which he claims in the latter of the OP not to have, but earlier in the OP states he sold several of his belongings to actually fund his Bustabit habit? That's contradictory within itself lmao, that's how stupid the OP is.

The list goes on but I won't ruin all the fun, I'm sure everyone else here is capable of reading too.
