Thread: [\[Suggestion\] View awards/upgrades bought for others.](#)

Mr. Robot - November 19, 2016, 3:16 am

So I was thinking it would be cool if your profile could show what awards/upgrades you have bought for others.

It probably has already been suggested but my HF searching couldn't find anything so if you know somewhere that this has already been suggested, please chuck it down in a reply.

I think seeing what awards/upgrades others have bought for each other would benefit the community in showing love/support for one another. I mean it puts more money into the site (hopefully) and would be a cool stat to show on your profile.

We all know Ryan Reynolds would have the highest amount - but I mean, it doesn't have to say who they awarded/upgraded, just something like

l33t x 4

Gift award x 2

Emerald x 2

That sort of thing -

Just my suggestion.

So close to the correct forum for suggestions, lol. But I like this idea. It might encourage more to buy awards and upgrades for others.

Not a bad idea, a nice way to show off our e-penis.

Shouldn't be too hard to implement either I assume.

Next time post it in the right section.

I advise you to take time to read the Help Docs.

This would be a nice feature if implemented. It will also encourage more upgrades.

Goodluck with the suggestion ?.

It's a good idea, hope this gets recognised.

On topic, I think this would be a cool feature. Not really nessecary but nice nonetheless. Get staff to move this to the right section though.

The only problem is where the hell would you show this statistic because I know if it's going to be on your profile it's going to look somewhat ugly and annoying. Perhaps a link within the Extras pages within the HF banner.Maybe a new layer underneath reputation called "contributions:" which features a number that redirects users to see further details?

I was thinking on your own awards page like have a tab or just another box further down.

I prefer bourbon anyway - But these are alright for a change of pace, think I pulled a muscle in my back lifting this mattress though so it was refreshing.

Me too but hey, if it doesn't -- no need to be salty like my beer.

Don't really want to bother them too much - mistakes were made on this thread.

Yes I took your suggestion, will take pics of my beer on my new mattress tomorrow if there are any left. It does taste quite bitter though compared to what I prefer. Was still refreshing after a hot day none the less.

Armada - November 19, 2016, 6:51 am

Rather kinda like this idea.

As already noted would likely encourage others to donate awards and upgrades more often.

Sajuuk - November 19, 2016, 7:18 am

Kind of a flimsy suggestion. Award lists for purchased awards are not open to public view, so I don't see why such a function you recommended should be implemented as it would work in the same fashion. (Even though if you just happen to randomly come across the user's profile link, you would be able to see the both their awards and the awards they have gifted to others).

EDIT: By the way, great job on posting in the right subforum! ?
