hi everyone we all did some bad stuff when we was young and When I was very young my grandma had a heart attack and unfortunately she passed away and it destroyed me I was very young at the time and I found my grandma's credit card I used it to buy myself a runescape membership I never told my mum it was me they thought someone had just hacked into her account Now am older I realise that this was very horrible of me and I feel guilty and sad at the same time I wish I could go back and tell her I was really sorry Now that am in college I have managed to cope with this however it completely messed me up and destroyed my heart on the day of college I was walking in town and because every since that day I was very sad some kid said to me my hair looks dumb and I hit him Infront of everyone in town I just couldn't deal with any shit no matter if I don't know the person if something really bad happens I switch to a horrible person and idc how old big they are I will just hit them because I cannot deal with that shit I have been feeling guilty ever since I feel guilty that I used my dead grandma's credit card aswell as sad but I know what I did was wrong now that am 19 I still cant forgive myself for what I did and to the kid I hit sorry aswell ?

TLDR: I used my dead grandma's credit card should I feel guilty or sad?

You shouldn't feel guilty for something you did as a kid, especially over a runescape membership, everyone did stupid things as a kid.

Yeah, if it helps op, I once gave some peeps CC details in a phising site because I thought I won 30K usd from youtube which zeroed the account. Don't feel bad, gramma probably happy she get to buy you something even after she passed.

no you shouldn't feel bad your grandma probably knew you loved her deep inside and you was really young so don't worry about it :)

Maybe she wanted to buy you a thing that makes you happy and that thing was runescape. :)
