Notorious Recruitment #1

Turn your face to the sun and the shadows fall behind you.

Subforum Icon:

Group Userbar:

Requirements:

We are accepting applications for a limited period of time, and the general requirements for this are as follows: You have been a registered member of HackForums for atleast a month.

You don't have any open and valid scam reports against you.

You are willing to participate in group activities unless extreme circumstances arise.

No flaming of members.

User background and other activities will also be checked before you are recruited into our group.

We are looking for members who have a strong grasp of the work they do, and that their knowledge/experience in that is vast. For example, if you are experienced in malware analysis/removal, a brief but fairly detailed and understandable paragraph on your subject will immensely help in your selection.

Although the recruitment is not limited to the following skills, these are the one we are primarily looking for in our new recruits (in no specific order): Pentesting (Websites/Web Servers)

Malware Analysis/Removal

Experience in botnets/RATs and similar hacking procedures.

Capture-the-Flag (CTF) enthusiasts

Knowledge of DIY real-life gadgets (such as cameras, gps, hacking utilities and much more)

Experience and knowledge of PC customisation and trouble-shooting.

Cryptography

Reverse engineering

Experience in internet marketing/SEO OR investment opportunities. (No f*cking eBook sellers) and lastly, Coders experienced in popular programming languages

Why do you want to join the group "Notorious"? I really want to join Notorius. I know who is TheChief and what type of person is he. And I am sure this group will turn to be one of the best groups in HF, with nice people. And I want to join this group to meet more persons with who I can share my ideas and knowledge and to have to who to talk sometimes.

What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you?: So far, you know me. I am a nice person, who is helping everyone with what I can. I am loyal, respectful and mature. And I put a lot of passion in things I like.

What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? :I've got a general knowledge in a lot of different fields, and I think I have a lot to offer in regards to the skills that I've mastered. My primary focus on HF is to guide newer members to greatness, similar to how I've been guided by members that I still look up to. It's time for me to pass on the favors, and that's what I strive for every day. I'll also be dedicated to the group.

Why do you want to join the group "Notorious"? :Being the business-minded individual that I am, I'm always looking to meet new people to add to my network. I'm also always looking to join new groups that I can learn from. Knowledge is essential to becoming more well-rounded so I'm always looking for people to learn from. I love meeting with like-minded people that share similar interests with me, work on business projects together, or just have a chill time with. What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? :Well most "businessmen" on HF can't say that they actually own a true business, however I can. This past month I have registered my first business in the US and will be launching it soon, along with my other few projects that are all backed by investors. I can assure you that having me in the group will be beneficial as I'm always looking for opportunities to collaborate with people on projects that will not just benefit me, but the group as well, which is what I have done and am doing in Illuminati currently. With my network, I can put together pretty much any product/service and if I don't have the necessary contacts, I can find them. I'm one of the most motivated and dedicated people you will come across, having me in the group will not be a wasted spot.

Online Security, Privacy, and Anonymity Why do you want to join the group "Notorious"? Well, I'm glad you finally got the rebrand done haha, I've been waiting forever to finally be able to apply. First off, I would like to join because this group seems right up my ally. Seeing as how you are looking for people with the skills related to pentesting and what not(you know the skills lol) I feel like I would fit in nicely with the current set of skills I have came to possess. Secondly, as with most people, my skill set isn't really "polished" per se. I believe that here, I can learn a bit more and add onto the skills I have already learned, and on top of that, maybe I'll even be able to learn completely new things, and to be honest that would be awesome. Lastly, with any "new" group, I believe I could meet some pretty amazing people. Lots of people I see as "cool" guys are already in this group, so there must be a reason for that eh? Hopefully I'll meet many new people. What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? Well, I know you probably already see many other applicants with a better set of skills than me, or better anything really. So there probably wont be any convincing here, but I guess I can give it a shot. For starters, I'll just give the generic answers, I am an active participant. I browse HF usually hourly for about 30 minutes, if not for a whole hour. I love to participate in events, and if I'm not participating than I am usually actually managing said event. I am a great, funny, and level-headed guy. I usually try to make situations funny if they tend to lean on the undesirable side, but I also know when to be serious, strict, and fair, if the time or situation calls for such. I also do various giveaways that are group exclusive every now and again, just to show my appreciation, and I usually do such for as long as I remain in the group. Lastly, I can contribute to the group nicely, be it activity-wise, through giveaways, or through tutorials(which I usually spend hours on so they turn out nice and give away as much info as possible.

Country and Time Zone:Eastern Standard Time (UTC -5) What are you good at? (Skills):My skills include metal fabrication along side automotive repair and diagnostics, however I believe you are more interested in my tech knowledge and skill sets.

I have limited programming experience with c#, I meddle a bit but it's not something I would consider advanced.

I am very experienced at troubleshooting PC hardware with over 20 years behind me building, maintaining PC's both professionally and as a hobby. This has been my most active form of helping others on HF, helping members with build plans and troubleshooting all kinds of hardware issues they may have.

I am also familiar with the currency exchange markets, I've run my exchange for a while (I've had to close it as I had gotten extremely busy outside HF) along side that I offer a MM service for crypto currency exchanges only, I do not deal or exchange in social media or game items.

I used to game a fair bit on PC (GTA V Online) but I haven't played very much as of late because between life and work I haven't had the time to play.

I also have other interests and hobbies, including R/C off-road racing, lock picking and other outdoor activities.

Why do you want to join the group "Notorious"? I would like to join Notorious because I feel I can offer help to people both outside the group and inside, which is the reason I am as active on HF as I am, to share my knowledge with those who can benefit from it. What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? Being in the higher age tier of HF members, I have some experience behind me that many may not.

I have been active on HF for nearly 5 years with a relatively clean profile and strive to continue that for as long as the forum is up and running.

What are you good at? (Skills):One of my skills is programming in the .NET framework. I learned a lot of my knowledge here on HF including some other off-site resources. I've made multiple programs in the past, some of which I use personally to make my life easier when I'm using my computer. I've even sold one of the products here. Another thing I'm good at is troubleshooting computers. Although I don't know to what extent I'm good at this, I've been able to help many friends and family who have had issues with their PCs or laptops. A couple of them were really good at using computers themselves yet I was still able to solve their issues. My knowledge of this came off-site before I joined the forum. One more skill of mine would be being persuasive. This more comes under my skills when marketing as I know what language to use to make people be interested in something - obviously without false advertising at the same time. This skill has come in handy when I've tried to sell things both in real life and online.

Why do you want to join the group "Notorious"?I am at a positive member of the community who strives to help anybody I can and I want to bring some nice things to the table which I'll list below. I'd generally want to help the group out and the members within it as well. Another reason why I'd like to join the group Notorious is because I can use this as a chance to broaden my personal knowledge as well as share my own knowledge with others. Through this, I can help members further which is one of the things I love; being able to teach people something new. On top of that, members can teach me things as well to expand what I know myself.

What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you?:I can brand giveaways, products and so on under Notorious' name. Through this, I can popularise the group itself and all positive feedback will be going to Notorious as well. This would be a great opportunity for the group and myself.

Additionally, I'm not a member that's here to join the group for the userbar. I haven't been in an active group for a while and I miss all the joy and fun I had from when I used to be in them. I know who Notorious' members are and all of them are some really great people, thus I'll be able to share my joy with the group.

Thanks for the opportunity of joining this group and I wish the very best for it.
