Why should we accept you?: I've been gaming since 7 years old and never stopped I'd be an active member in the subforum and would love to have the chance to start some interesting content. I'm a very active member on the forum and I think i'd be a prefect fit for this group.

Why would you like to join?: I don't have many gaming friends and would love the chance to make some I normal solo queue everything I play it would be nice to have some people to play mainly overwatch with I think this would be the perfect group for that.

Why you want to join?: Because I was a former member and at the time I didn't feel the group. Now I'm ready to come back.

Why should we accept you?: You had me in the group before, and you know I'm active and contribute. I also did not leave on bad terms, I couldn't commit to groups at the time and the only other group I was in was Riptide which doesn't demand much. I'm a member of Illuminati and Riptide and contribute daily to both. I'm a known user, and generally a pretty relaxed guy. I'd like to rejoin the group and chat with some old pals (if they're still there)

Good luck to all applicants, great group to be a part of.

Dean Winchester? - November 22, 2016, 5:20 am

Am I eligible to join this group

Blue Moon - November 22, 2016, 8:42 am

Age: 21

Country: Canada

Timezone: Eastern Standard Time

Platform(s): Primarily PC

Favorite games: ESO, Smite, CS:GO, World of Tanks

Most played games: Currently with me having bought a laptop that is able to handle a lot of the games I couldn't play I have moved into MMO's, Within the last few weeks I made a few purchases in the MMO genre and have been spending most of my time playing ESO, I do still dabble in BF3, BF4, and the Call of Duty series.

Favorite genre: I was super into FPS when I still had my Playstation and Xbox, but since starting school I sold them for some extra cash I have moved into computer games like strategy, FPS, and MMO.

Why should we accept you?: I have been part of many gaming sections of groups, I have an idea of how the swing of things work around them now. I bring an energetic and easy going personality and I am open to meeting new people with similar or different personalities as mine

Why would you like to join?: Truthfully, I took a long vacation from the forums around the time Instinct/Nightfall was disbanded and sold, it was a huge part of my life on HF since I had been in that group since a few weeks after it was started, I had stayed in it through the re-brands, purges and drama and honestly when the core members either left or were banned I just sort of did the same. I faded out of the forums. I know quite a few people didn't like the guys in the group, but that's the truth and I need something to bring me back to this forums, because posting in the Lounge and Innuendo sections aren't cutting it.

Grand Theft Auto: V

Most played games:CS:GO

Old School Runescape

GTA:V

Pokemon Go(?) Imao

Adding more.

Favorite genre:FPS

MMORPGS(?)

Why should we accept you?:I'm a likeable guy (pls illuminati :()), I make friends easily. Been in a lot of groups and most people within those groups seem to like me and consider me friendly

I am active, I will post several times a day. I'm rarely too busy to post and I likely won't be leaving again until April when I'm leaving to join the military.

Now onto the sake of gaming;

I've been playing games for over a decade, starting off with the GBA and Nintendo DS, went on to play on the PS2, mostly car games and the Sly series. While I was playing on the PS2 I got into Runescape, this was back in 2005-2006 so Runescape was incredibly popular back then, I maxed a couple stats, started botting because I got tired of the game and soon-ish after I got banned for botting. After this, I bought the PS3 and got hooked on the CoD franchise, spent 1000s of hours playing CoD: Modern Warfare and CoD: Modern Warfare 2 Multiplayer, and probably a couple hundred hours on CoD: Black Ops Zombies.

Since then I have been playing hundreds of hours on the GTA franchise, Minecraft, the CounterStrike franchise (mostly CS:GO) and some 2007scape.

I play somewhere between 4-12 hours every day, depending on whether or not the day is a workday (I do 3PM-Midnight shifts 1-5 times a week).

Currently unranked in CS:GO Matchmaking, had ESEA with a C ranking (didn't play more than a couple games before my internet connection started cutting so I couldn't play full games without getting disconnected, renewing my ESEA subscription once I fix it permanently)

I am at about 1600 total lvl in 2007Scape, with a combat lvl of 104

Don't know what more to add here honestly lmao, just gave you my gaming life story. Idek why.

"Stream of consciousness"-writing lmao Why would you like to join?:I've just returned after a one year vacation ban, most of my friends are gone or never leaves their group's subforums. I want to join a community that is somewhat "tighter" than "The Lounge" to get to know a couple people again.

Screenshots (spoiler them):Screenshots of what?

Favorite games: Many to all FPS games including COD and battlefield etc.

I've come to also enjoy role playing games such as Skyrim and assassins creed . However, My abloute favorite game is Space invaders.

Most played games: I typically spend most of my time on FPS games due to my competitive side, which includes cod, battlefield, and gears of war.

Favorite genre: My absoute favorite genre is FPS by far.

Why should we accept you?:I believe I should be accepted into this group based on the fact that I'm also a fellow gamer. Im very friendly and kind plus could be a great supportive teammate. I enjoy tough challenges and often overcome them however, I abolish losing at any cost but in a good way. ;)

Why would you like to join?:I'm a fellow gamer looking for other fellow gamers. I enjoy challenges and difficulties plus I'm very supportive in any situation. I'd also like to get involved more in GB or competitions, in which I believe you guy's can help. To sum it all up, I'm just looking for chill members to enjoy commonly loved games with.

Thanks for taking the time to read this!

Why should we accept you?:

I've been gaming since I was three, my first games were simple little kids games and Pokemon Red classic. Since then I've collected over 280 games of Steam, a majority are high class AAA ranging from Grand Theft Auto V to World of Warcraft. I don't really have a genre of game I don't like to play, so you'll find I'm quite open to different recommendations and discussions. Gaming is a huge focus in my life and I've even dabbled a bit into modding using the Creation Kit.

Why would you like to join?:

I want to learn more about modding and gaming in general. Being a part of Synergy would allow me to discover new games, new stories, and meet new people. It would definitely be an experience worth remembering.

I am Daniel, most commonly referred to as Demi due to my last name. Also formally known as Nyeve online.

I am 18 years of age.

I live in Canada, Toronto. This has a timezone of EST -5

My skill set consists of pen testing, internet security, online monetization, graphic design, and currency exchange.

I provide very high-quality products to the community, along with constant BTC exchanges for any widely used payment processor. I try to help users whenever I can and I am always online since I am a man of my word for my services.

There are many reason I would love to join Synergy. One of the main reasons is meeting new people. I love being social and sharing my train of thoughts and most importantly exchange knowledge. I would also love to represent the amazingly founded group under my name, this would subject me to post much more HQ posts as I already do.

I believe that I should be accepted to Synergy because I would be a great addition and along with that a great representative and leave highly respected thoughts for the group.

Why should we accept you?: Im pretty good in csgo if I try. I prefer playing with a full team, but sadly i dont have many friends who play csgo. Would be cool to be in a team again and to have a full team to play with. My rank is currently LE. Been playing some derank games because then I can queue with my friends. Im also a Graphic Designer and i dont mind helping people out with gfx.

Im online around 6-12 hours a day, don't have a job anymore and all friends are in school :p

Why would you like to join?: As mentioned above, I really want some new friends that I can play with on same the same skill-group. I can play on Faceit, Esea and normal MM.

Country: United States

Timezone: Eastern

Platform(s): I currently play on both PC and PS4, but I also have a PS3.

Favorite games: My current favorite games would have to be CS:GO, Modern Warfare Remastered, NBA 2k17, GTA V and Battlefield One.

Most played games: My most played games would have to be each game of the COD series (mostly MW2, had over 100 days played), along with CS:GO. In total, I have around 900 hours in CS.

Favorite genre: I currently am most into shooters, but I also do enjoy sports games quite a bit!

Why should we accept you?: I'd love to contribute to the group by hosting giveaways along with tournaments (possibly with prizes) weekly! I plan on contributing as much as I possibly can, and will be as active as possible. I post a ton daily - if you check www.HackForums.net/stats.php, I am the sites current top poster for today as I was yesterday as well!

Why would you like to join?: I want to join so I can meet new people and enjoy gaming with them. Contributions:

I haven't been on HF long enough to really make any true contributions, though I have donated $20 and upgraded to L33T, EP1C, and paid for a friends upgrade to UB3R.

I have been planning on donating a little more, and possibly doing a couple giveaways.

Why you want to join?:

I would love to join Synergy to be in a friendly environment with people who have a lot of common interests. The fact the group even has a gaming sector would give me an entire section for me to easily get to know other members.

I can only imagine what else is being talked about inside Synergy, as seeing many of the members that have been accepted are extremely HQ and interesting people.

Why should we accept you?:

You should accept me because, even though I am a newer member, I have put some time, money, and effort into my stay here at HF. I've fairly active, and have made a few friends on the forum already. I believe like these are good signs in a member, and that it'll only advance from there.

Platform(s):PC (Steam & Origin)

Xbox (360 & XB1)

Favorite games:CS:GO

BF1

Rust

Hitman

CoD:BO3

CoD:MW2

GTA:SA

GTA V These are only my favorites, not games I enjoy.

Most played games:

CS:GO - I've put at least a year of playtime into CS:GO. I've been playing it for about 3 years on and off, and have gone from the lowest ranks up to the top. I play ESEA, CEVO, and FaceIT (leagues) and feel like they are helping me still grow my skill, as well as play against better opponents.

CS:S - This game got me into PC gaming. I would spend every last minute I could playing CS:S. Jailbreak got me hooked, Surf kept me interested, and Scrimming changed my view on the entire FPS genre, making me play competitively.

CoD:MW2 - First game I ever played online. Would play this just about as much as I could.

Trickshotting was a very big interest of mine, everything in the entire scene of trickshotting. The editing, graphics, and the crazy luck people would have in a game.

Favorite genre:

By far, my all-time favorite genre is FPS.

I love how intense some FPS games can get, whether it be single player or multi player. Just the feel of actually having to aim precisely down the sight of a weapon, having to adjust my aim for weapon drop, sway, or spread is really fun and interesting. Hitting a crazy hard shot that is both random, and skill, is one of the best feelings in the world for me, which I feel I can only experience in FPS games.

Favorite genre: I'm super into First person shooters and a lot of into RPG games.

Why should we accept you?: I have been on HF for about 3 years or more now and have never been in a group yet. This group is almost the only group I'm really interested in to get to know people and converse about games and learning about new ones.

Why would you like to join?: as I said earlier this is primarily one of the only groups that caught my attention. I also just love gaming and chatting with people about their gaming experiences. Mostly to be a part of a community inside a really big one (HF)

Why should we accept you?:
I am a funny, friendly, knowledgeable guy. I have a very chill and laid-back attitude. I have always had a knack for making friends. I also have tried a lot of different things in my life so I know a bit about different topics(i.e. Skateboarding, BTC, Lettuce ?)

When it comes to gaming, especially shooters I have a lot of experience. Gaming has been a big part of my life since the 3rd grade. I have a lot of experience in both competitive and casual gaming. I am also very skilled when it comes to shooters. In BO3 I was Arena rank 20, and in Halo I was always Onyx division.

Why would you like to join?:
I would like to join because I don't have any close friends on HF yet, and it would be awesome to meet some cool, chill guys, especially ones who game. The group has some awesome graphics, and just seems like it has a great overall feel.

Contributions: I haven't been on HackForums for very long but here and there I feel like I have helped a lot of users while I have been on, whether it be pointing them in the right direction to post their thread, giving advice regarding various subjects, helping others with problems they're having, sharing my own experiences with others. I did 2 giveaways yesterday here and here.

Why do you want to join?: I'd like to join Synergy as I strongly believe that it will give me the opportunity to be more involved within the community. I want to get to know others to enhance my enjoyment from being on this forum and hopefully I can make it better for others too. Synergy seems to be full of intelligent people and I'm eager to learn from them if they're willing to share knowledge, and I'd like to share mine too.

Why should we accept you?: I'm not saying I'm better than anyone else but I'm definitely a unique character with a lot to offer to the group and HackForums in general. I plan on doing giveaways in the near future. I think I should be accepted as I'm always down to help others and learn new things. I'm very active on the forum and will participate in discussions and whatnot.

Why should we accept you?:

I believe that I am what you are looking for. I am a person made of kindness and positive vibes. I try my best to help people and do my best to make HackForums a better place to be. I will only be a bonus to the team and will be very happy to join. With all the experience and knowledge around gaming that I've gotten throughout my life I can contribute and share with other fellow members.

Why would you like to join?:

As I mentioned I believe that I am what you're looking for. It's a gaming recruitment and I'm a gamelover. I spend minimum at least 2-3 hours a day gaming. I have been gaming since I was 6 years old, and nothing has stopped me from doing what I love since then. I have a lot of experience and can contribute that way. I'm open for new games and once a while try out new stuff to get a wider 'game-pool' and to gain even more experience around different types of games and genres.

Thanks for reading and kind regards.
