Since, I do not have anything better to do with them. I got this idea from another member here.

Any username, no questions asked. Post or PM me with what username/domain you want and I'll PM you the details.

Domains available currently:

hackism.xyz

hackoid.xyz

hackguru.xyz

technicism.xyz

abused.xyz

ToS: (Copied from Wisconsin's Thread)

1. I am NOT able to view your personal emails. I can change passwords, but I have no reason to. I will NOT touch your personal things if you want this email.

2. For the above statement, I would personally recommend you do NOT use this email for a PayPal/BTC Website. Again. I will not touch your email, but it's still a safety precaution.

3. I understand if you don't trust me. This is something weird, but I'm just trying to give back to the community in a unique way.

I'm using yandex mail. So the link to logins would be like these:
