Digital fantasy art drawn by me

Just finished this one, soft edges, (i didn't really like this)

Spoiler (Click to View)

This one i drew yesterday, i preffer the sharper edges of these types of drawings

Second one: The little pond has no reflection in it or saturation around the edges.

I really like this style of art. Do you use a tablet to paint these or do you use your mouse? I've always wanted to try something like this but have never had the patience with mouse.

Looks good but with some more practice it could definitely be improved on! I'm sure you're creative enough to make some great art, just keep working on your blending and such and it'll look great.

Tried it once and it wasn't very fun. You need some patience to do that... Need to invest in a tablet.
